

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND CARE

EARN YOUR CHILD DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE TEACHER PERMIT

This Child Development and Care series meets the academic requirement for an early childhood associate teacher permit from the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Courses are free to attend for those who qualify. In addition, you could earn up to 12-semester units towards the Associate Teacher Permit.

WHO CAN APPLY

Eligible local residents who currently possess a GED or High School Diploma.

HOW TO APPLY

Complete the Merced Adult School registration form:

<https://ucm.edu/masreg>

(Select Child Development Permit Courses)

YOU WILL

- Gain career development and college level coursework through this four-course series
- Earn twelve units of lower division credit at University of California, Merced

COURSES

EDUC X006 Child Development for Education Professionals
EDUC X007 Child, Family, & Community for Education Professionals
EDUC X008 Introduction to Curriculum in ECE
EDUC X021 Culture and Diversity for Education Professionals
(each course is 3 semester units)

NEXT COHORT DATES

Currently accepting applications for consideration of planned cohorts beginning in mid- to late-August 2023.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- ❖ Teacher Assistants
- ❖ K-8 After School Enrichment
- ❖ Preschool Teachers
- ❖ Daycare Provider
- ❖ District paraprofessionals
- ❖ Childcare Worker or instructional aides

ABOUT COURSES

- ❖ Courses available in English & Spanish
- ❖ Offered 100% online during weekday evenings
- ❖ Laptops may be available upon request