

In May 2015, I graduated with my graduate degree, MFA Film & Television Producing from Chapman University's Dodge College of Film, Television & Media Arts. Additionally, the film school is ranked as #7 on The Hollywood Reporter's Top 25 Best Film Schools list in America (<http://www.hollywoodreporter.com/features/top-25-american-film-schools-811367>).

In addition to my new conferral as a Master of Fine Arts in Film & Television Producing, I was recently informed that my graduate thesis film 'bastard', was selected as one of the top 5 films for the 2014-2015 academic year as part of the Leo Freedman Foundation First Cut Showcase. The film will be screened on September 24, 2015 at the Directors Guild of America Theater Complex in Los Angeles and at the DGA in New York City (Time, TBD). The following is a link for more information about this achievement: <https://blogs.chapman.edu/dodge/2015/08/24/first-cut-la-2015-to-showcase-our-best/>

ABOUT MIGUEL BERG

Miguel is a film & television producer who has produced internationally recognized award-winning productions for over 10 years. His works have been featured on NBC Universal's E! International Television, Syfy Channel, Travel Channel, New York Video School, ATT Uverse, DirectTV, and ShortsHD. Several of his films have been screened globally in many major cities like New York City, Hollywood, Orlando, Houston, Toronto, and Athens.

In 2007, he founded the Gamma Chi Chapter of the Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity at the University of South Carolina - the university's Jewish fraternity that has grown from its initial 4 members to provide opportunities for over 100+ members. The fraternity has gone on to raise over $30,000 annually for philanthropic causes like juvenile diabetes and continues to perform with various contributions to the campus and the community.

Moreover, in 2012, he founded the Greenville International Film Festival that has since united over 70+ countries providing experienced and emerging filmmakers with an avenue to share their talents, in an empowering environment while generating a unique experience for an underserved arts community.

Since graduating from the University of South Carolina (B.A. Media Arts, '08) he has been awarded multiple Telly Awards and notable industry achievements. While earning his MFA in Film & Television Producing at Chapman University Dodge College of Film, Television, & Media Arts, he was also the recipient of the Panavision New Filmmakers Award and his thesis film was named as one of the top five films for his year by the Leo Freedman Foundation First Cut Showcase, an annual event that celebrates Chapman University's best filmmakers at the Director's Guild of America in Los Angeles and New York City.

He currently resides in Irvine, CA with his wife and two children.