Trenton Public Schools Announces Schools of Choice Enrollment

The Trenton Public Schools will open Schools of Choice Program for the 2023-2024 school year. This program is open to students who reside in Wayne and adjacent counties, pursuant to the State School Aid Act MCL 388.1705c, Section 105c.

Trenton Public Schools: Academics, Athletics and Opportunity

- Renovated, expanded and state of the art elementary schools, middle school and high school including high school athletic complex (2018 Bond - $57 million)
- Boyd W. Arthurs Middle School Recipient of “Schools to Watch” award in 2012, 2016, 2019 and 2022
- Seventeen (17) Advanced Placement classes and Capstone Diploma Program and three world language offerings at Trenton High School
- K-8 Positive Behavior Support (PBIS), K-12 Anti-Bully Awareness program and “Trojan Pride” student groups at the high school
- State Champion Robotics Team
- Award winning music, band and fine arts programs
- Twenty-six (26) different high school sports earning league, divisional and state championships
- Nine (9) on site Career Technical Education Programs with access to 20 additional programs through our Downriver consortium (DCTC)
- TPS provides middle and high school transition programs that welcome both 6th and 9th grade students into their respective buildings

In an effort to support those interested in our Schools of Choice program, Trenton Public Schools is accepting all applications for grades Y5K – 12. If the number of applicants exceeds the number of open seats per grade level, the district will use a random draw system to select the applicants.

Currently, we anticipate consideration for up to 100 open seats in both our elementary (Y5K - 5th) and secondary buildings (6th – 12th).

All applications must be received within the posted timeline for the application window, and all applications received at any time within that posted window will be given equal consideration. However, siblings of students currently enrolled in TPS via Schools of Choice will be given first priority.

Applications Accepted: Monday July 31, 2023 – Thursday August 10, 2023

Completed applications are due to the Administration Office by 4:00 p.m., Thursday August 10, 2023.
