Introduction

Welcome

On behalf of the Campbell County Board of Education and the entire Campbell County School District, we welcome you to Campbell County Schools. Campbell County Schools is a district on the move, with high expectations of all our employees, and we have no intention of stopping until all our children reach proficiency.

Our mission and goals are clear, and it is important that all employees understand the part that each of us play in the education of the children of Campbell County. Each of our jobs is unique and we each have a responsibility to see to the success of our students. We challenge you to be the best you can be and set an example for not only your peers, but for our children, who look to all of us for guidance.

The Central Office is at your service. Your concerns are important to all of us and we welcome your phone call or visit. It is our hope that this handbook will be a valuable tool to you as an employee and will answer most of your questions; however, if you need clarification or additional information please do not hesitate to ask. The purpose of the handbook is to acquaint you with general Board of Education policies that govern and affect your employment and to outline the benefits available to you as an employee of the District.

You are expected to be familiar with policies and procedures that are related to your job responsibilities.

Because this handbook is a general source of information, it is not intended to be, and should not be interpreted as, a contract. It is not an all-encompassing document and may not cover every possible situation or unusual circumstance. If a conflict exists between information in this handbook and Board policy or administrative procedures, the policies and procedures govern. It is the employee's responsibility to refer to the actual policies and/or administrative procedures for further information. Policies and procedures are available online at www.campbellcountyschools.org or at the Central Office. Any employee is free to review official policies and procedures and is expected to be familiar with those related to his/her job responsibilities. Employees and students who fail to comply with Board policies may be subject to disciplinary action. 01.5

School council policies, which are also available from the Principal, may also apply in some instances. 02.4241

In this handbook, bolded policy codes indicate related Board of Education policies. If an employee has questions, s/he should contact his/her immediate supervisor or Diana Heidelberg, Human Resources Supervisor, in the Central Office.

Return the completed Acknowledgment Form to the Central Office.

Located in the back of this Handbook is an Acknowledgment Form. Once you review this Handbook, please read the Acknowledgment Form, sign and date the Form, and return the Form to the Central Office.

District Mission

The mission of the Campbell County School District, in partnership with students, staff, parents, and community, is to do “whatever it takes” to ensure our students’ success in college, career, and life.

Future Policy Changes

Although every effort will be made to update the handbook on a timely basis, the Campbell County Board of Education reserves the right, and has the sole discretion, to change any policies, procedures, benefits, and terms of employment without notice, consultation, or publication, except as may be required by contractual agreements and law. The District reserves the right, and has the sole discretion, to modify or change any portion of this handbook at any time.

General Terms of Employment

Equal Opportunity Employment

As required by Title IX, the District does not discriminate on the basis of sex regarding admission to the District or in the educational programs or activities operated by the District. Inquiries regarding Title IX Sexual Harassment may be referred to the District Title IX Coordinator (TIXC), the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, or both.

The Campbell County Board of Education is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation or gender identity), genetic information, national or ethnic origin, political affiliation, age, disabling condition, or limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.

Reasonable accommodation for individuals with disabilities or limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions will be provided as required by law.

If considerations of sex, age or disability have a bona fide relationship to the unique requirements of a particular job or if there are federal or state legal requirements that apply, then sex, age or disability may be taken into account as a bona fide occupational qualification, provided such consideration is consistent with governing law.

If you have questions concerning District compliance with state and federal equal opportunity employment laws, contact the Director of Human Resources at the Board of Education's Central Office. 03.113/03.212

The Board is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

The Campbell County Board of Education intends that employees have a safe and orderly work environment in which to do their jobs. Therefore, the Board does not condone and will not tolerate harassment of or discrimination against employees, students, or visitors to the school or District, or any act prohibited by Board policy that disrupts the work place or the educational process and/or keeps employees from doing their jobs.

Any employee who believes that he or she, or any other employee, student, or visitor to the school or District, is being or has been subjected to harassment or discrimination shall bring the matter to the attention of his/her Principal/immediate supervisor or the District's Title IX/Equity Coordinator as required by Board policy. The District will investigate any such concerns promptly and confidentially.

No employee will be subject to any form of reprisal or retaliation for having made a good-faith complaint under this policy. For complete information concerning the District's position prohibiting harassment/discrimination, assistance in reporting and responding to alleged incidents, and examples of prohibited behaviors, employees should refer to the District's policies and related procedures. Complaints of harassment/discrimination, whether verbal or written, shall lead to a documented investigation and a written report. 03.162/03.262

Following is a summary of the major provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provided by the United States Department of Labor.

FML Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements - Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered servicemember during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

*The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current servicemembers and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections - During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements - Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

*Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition - A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave - An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave - Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities - Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave.

Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities - Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers - FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to: interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided or to discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement - An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer. FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

Professional Guidelines for School Employees, Coaches and Volunteers

Below are some guidelines for school employees, coaches, and volunteers highlighted in local policy, state regulations or Professional Code of Ethics.

1. To protect Campbell County School staff, volunteers, and program participants, at no time during a Campbell County sponsored event may a staff person or volunteer be alone with a student where the staff person or volunteer cannot be observed by others, unless it is to ensure the safety and well-being of the student. (Ex: An employee can wait alone with a student until a parent/guardian arrives to pick up the student). (Ex: A teacher can meet alone with a student in a classroom as long as the classroom door is open and both the teacher and student are meeting near the opened door entrance and are in clear sight of those walking the hallways).
2. Staff shall never leave a child unsupervised.
3. Staff and volunteers will monitor student behavior as required by the school administration between class periods or during school sponsored events or as directed by school officials. Employees are to seek administrative assistance as necessary when addressing student behaviors.
4. Staff shall not abuse children or use corporal punishment of any kind. This includes physical abuse, verbal abuse, sexual abuse, mental abuse, or neglect. Any type of abuse will not be tolerated and is cause for dismissal.
5. Staff and volunteers will use appropriate touch including pats on the back or shoulder, side hugs, handshakes, and high fives. Staff and volunteers will refrain from full frontal hugging, touching of personal areas, sitting in the laps, or patting of the buttocks.
6. Staff and volunteers will use positive techniques of guidance, including redirection, positive reinforcement, and encouragement rather than criticism, yelling, bullying, and intimidation.
7. Staff and volunteers will not give gifts or special favors to individual children, or show preferential treatment to a child or group of children to the exclusion of others.
8. Staff and volunteers will respond to students with respect and consideration and treat all students equally regardless of gender, socio-economic status, race, religion, sexual identity, or culture.
9. Staff and volunteers will refrain from intimate displays of affection toward others.

10. Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours or when supervising students on school related trips is prohibited.
11. Smoking or use of tobacco products in the presence of students or parents during working hours is prohibited. This includes athletic practices, etc.
12. Profanity, inappropriate jokes, sharing intimate details of one's personal life, and any kind of harassment is prohibited.
13. Staff and volunteers shall not transport students in their own vehicles.
14. Staff shall not date or engage in personal relationship with students.
15. Staff and volunteers shall not record video or audio in student locker rooms or restrooms
16. Under no circumstance should staff release students to anyone other than the authorized parent, guardian, or other adult authorized by the parent or guardian (written parent authorization on file with Campbell County Schools). There may be an extreme situation such as an emergency in which the parent wishes to release their child to someone not listed on the emergency card. Under such situation, a phone call may be acceptable as long as the school logs the call, time, parent/guardian, and instructions. The log is to be maintained by the school administration for the remainder of the school year.
17. Staff and volunteers are required by State Regulations to report any suspicion of child abuse to the proper authorities and are required to read and sign all policies relating to identifying, documenting and reporting child abuse.
