A festival of archaeology

Thursday 27th July
Session 1 – 10.30 – 12.30
Session 2 – 1:30 – 3.30

The School Summer Holidays are almost here... bring your mini archaeologists to find out about the World of Iron Age Celts here at A Welsh Coal Mining Experience.

There will be two sessions on the day, 10.30 – 12.30 and 1.30 – 3.30. With only 60 spaces available, booking is advised. Tickets can be purchased here. Adults go free and each child ticket is £3. Rhondda Heritage park.

The poster for the 'Big Welsh Bite' festival features a vibrant green and blue background with a sheep illustration at the top. It includes social media icons for Twitter and Facebook with the handle '@whatsonrct'. The main title 'CEGAID O FWYD CYMRU BIG WELSH BITE' is in large, bold, yellow and white letters. Below it, a red banner reads 'Gŵyl Dathlu Bwydydd a Diodydd Cymru Welsh Food & Drink Festival'. The dates 'Dydd Sadwrn a Sul • Saturday & Sunday' and '5+6 AWST 2023 AUGUST' are prominently displayed, along with the time '11am - 5pm'. A grid of small images shows various festival activities. Two columns of bullet points list the festival's offerings, including food stalls, beer garden, family funfair, and entertainment. The bottom section provides the location 'PARC COFFA YNYSANGHARAD WAR MEMORIAL PARK, PONTYPRIDD' and two website URLs: 'www.cegaidofwydcymru.co.uk' and 'www.bigwelshbite.co.uk'. At the very bottom, it lists sponsors: Nathaniel, MG, and Rhondda Cynon Taf.
