Course Description

First grade uses the Reading Wonders program by McGraw-Hill. It utilizes a Reading Wonders, Grade 1 (McGraw-Hill) informational selections by recognized authors and illustrators. The program incorporates phonics, phonological collection of stories and awareness, high-frequency words, spelling, handwriting, grammar, and vocabulary practice for each text set. Students are given multiple opportunities to master the skills and strategies taught throughout the year. The skills and strategies are presented through teacher-directed instruction, small group instruction, and independent study. They are often differentiated to focus on the needs of individual students.
