VISION

Alta Loma empowers Apaches to:
Believe in yourself,
Embrace your strengths,
Excel in your learning, and
Enrich your community.

MISSION

We are a community that exists to support the potential in every student to reach their hopes and dreams.

GOALS

- Build a positive, supportive community of leaders, learners, and families.
- Develop engaging lessons that provoke critical-thinking and problem-solving skills to ensure students reach their fullest potential.
- Create a community of leaders that are also learners, that empower each other to grow, and build positive relationships with all stakeholders.
- Engage in cyclic coaching that supports staff with the use of effective feedback, appropriate professional learning, individual instructional support, and dedicated planning time.

ABOUT US

Alta Loma Elementary is 1 of 17 elementary campuses within San Angelo Independent School District in San Angelo, TX. Alta Loma serves students from K-5th grade. We strive to serve children through student leadership and creating meaningful, respectful relationships that encourage learning. Alta Loma is a school that is built on student voice and family partnerships. We are a Capturing Kids Hearts campus and believe that if you have a child's heart, you have their mind. Our campus is a generational campus. Many of our students have parents and grandparents that also attended elementary school at Alta Loma.
