• National surveys of adults suggest that between 9-32% of women and 5-10% of men report that they were victims of sexual abuse and/or assault during their childhood.
• 22% of victims were younger than age 12 when they were first raped, and 32% were between the ages of 12 and 17.
• LGBTQIA+ individuals experience sexual assault at higher rates than CIS-gender students
• Females of color experience sexual assault at higher rates than non-minority students
• The majority of male and female rape victims knew their perpetrator.
• Of surveyed college women, about 90% of rape and sexual assault victims knew their attacker prior to the assault.

In instances of potential sexual harassment, employees cannot offer to keep the matter confidential and must contact the Title IX Coordinator.

<tr>
<th>Step 1</th>
<th>Step 2</th>
<th>Step 3</th>
<th>Step 4</th>
<th>Step 5</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Conduct a prompt and individualized safety and risk analysis</td>
<td>Immediate threat to physical health or safety of any student or other individual arising from the allegations of sexual harassment is identified</td>
<td>Evaluate the applicability of disability laws to the removal decision</td>
<td>Consider the appropriateness of supportive measures in lieu of an emergency removal</td>
<td>Provide the respondent with notice and an “immediate” opportunity to challenge the emergency removal</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Supportive measures are:

- non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available
- without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent
- are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the District’s education programs or activities

- designed to protect the safety of all parties or the District’s educational environment, or deter sexual harassment.
• Complainant offered formal process
  • Offer should be made to parents of minors

• Investigation process should be explained to complainant and parents

• Complainant must request an investigation

• Wishes of complainant are to be respected
