(Must be typewritten, two (2) pages maximum, on a separate page clearly titled "Personal Essay".)

Students must show that they are committed to continuing their education by maintaining high academic and personal achievement. This essay is your opportunity to tell us about yourself and explain why you should be selected to receive this scholarship. Your written essay should clearly demonstrate experiences or accomplishments in at least three of the six areas listed below:

Special Talent: Discuss a special attribute or accomplishment that sets you apart from your peers.

Examples may include, but are not limited to: working well with others, artistic talents, athletic ability, public speaking or writing skills, a creative activity/challenge that you engaged in, etc.

Leadership and Service: Clearly articulate how you have demonstrated your leadership ability both in and out of school. Examples may include, but are not limited to: community service involvement, leadership roles or unique responsibilities at home, school or church, etc.

Challenges: Describe how you have achieved a goal despite struggles or obstacles that may have hindered you. Be specific.

Examples may include, but are not limited to: achievement of a goal despite struggles or barriers, withstanding significant peer pressure(s) that may have otherwise deterred your achievements, overcoming a major life event, etc.

Influences: Discuss situations or persons that have been major influences in your life.

Examples may include, but are not limited to: how your personal background has affected your view of the world, an individual or group who has been your biggest influence and why? A book that has affected you deeply and why, etc.

Legacy: Are there members of the Zeta Phi Beta, Phi Beta Sigma or Zeta Amicae in your family? Are you a past Zeta Archonette, Amicette, Pearlette? How has the influence of Zeta Phi Beta or Phi Beta Sigma influenced your path in life and in Zeta? What are your goals within Zeta at any and/or all levels?

Financial Need: Provide a more detailed and personal account of your financial need.

You may describe, from a financial standpoint, what impact would this award would have on your education, or share any special circumstances affecting your need for financial assistance.
