

“Theological education allows us to approach God faithfully with our questions and to reflect on the complexity of our lives as church in the world. It invites us to get to know the God of love, grace, and hope; to be faithful disciples of Christ; and to nurture our gifts for current and future ministries.

DAVID ANGULO, STUDENT

Austin Seminary is filled with inquisitive students and passionate teachers, all for the sake of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Master of Divinity student David Angulo was baptized and grew up in the Iglesia Nacional Presbiteriana de Mexico. Since relocating to Kingsville, Texas, to study at Presbyterian Pan-American School, he has heard that still, small voice urging him to explore a call to Christian ministry. Having graduated as an honor student from Schreiner University in Kerrville, Texas, David is now completing his training for ministry at Austin Seminary.

Degree programs at Austin Seminary

- Master of Divinity
- Master of Divinity/Master of Science in Social Work (a dual degree offered by Austin Seminary and The University of Texas at Austin Steve Hicks School of Social Work)
- Master of Arts in Youth Ministry
- Master of Arts in Ministry Practice
- Master of Arts in Religion
- Master of Arts (Theological Studies)
- Doctor of Ministry

Programs for non-professionals in ministry

You don't have to be enrolled in a degree program to engage in meaningful contemplation about matters of faith. We also offer a Certificate In Ministry (in English and Spanish) and short-term programs with Education Beyond the Walls, our lifelong learning program.
