Grade: 3-5	Content Area: Media Arts
-------------------	---------------------------------

Introduction

The grade 3-5 Media Arts curriculum provides a variety of integrated, interdependent learning opportunities for students to develop artistic literacy and fluency in the media arts discipline. Students are expected to engage in imagining, creating, and performing ways to express their ideas, and analyze and respond to the artistic works of others. Artistic processes, anchor standards, practices, and performance expectations assist in developing these skills along with grade level appropriate vocabulary, resources, and techniques.

Enduring Understandings: • Artist's appreciation of media artworks is influenced by their interests, experiences, understandings, and purposes. Identifying the qualities and characteristics of media artworks improves the individual's aesthetic and empathetic awareness. • Interpretation and appreciation of an artwork and its media require consideration of form, context and personal experience. Analysis of media artworks provides clues to their expressive intent. • Evaluation and critique are vital components of experiencing, appreciating and producing media artworks.	Essential Questions: • How do we analyze and react to media artworks? How do media artworks function to convey meaning and influence audience experience? • How do people relate to and interpret media artworks? How can the viewer "read" a work of art as text? How does knowing and using arts vocabulary help us understand and interpret works of art? • How and why do we value and judge media artworks? When and how should we evaluate and critique media artworks to improve them? How is a personal preference different from an evaluation?
