Introduction

Educational Philosophy

We believe that the Whitley County School System should provide a challenging program for all pupils regardless of race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation or gender identity), genetic information, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, sex, political affiliation, disabling condition, or limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions in employment, educational programs, or activities. Each individual should be given an equal opportunity for maximum development of his/her potential in the areas of physical, cultural, social, and moral life.

We believe that our program should contribute to opportunities for academic achievement and cultural enrichment. The curriculum should include a wide range of courses of study and extracurricular activities varied enough to give opportunities for self-expression.

We realize the need for each pupil to live a happy, useful, and worthwhile life. Therefore, the school has a definite responsibility in the establishment of constructive attitudes.

We believe that moral values and citizenship responsibilities need to be firmly and consistently stressed in our efforts to help the pupil determine his/her standards of behavior and to assume responsibility for his/her own behavior.

We believe pupils must be the center of every decision made with efforts directed toward the activation of educational curiosity and the reinforcement of citizenship responsibilities.

We believe that the American system of education must be the most forceful institution in perpetuating democracy.

Each pupil must be taught that the privileges of democracy must be balanced with individual responsibility.

Educational Goals

- To provide guidance for all children in order for them to develop their physical, mental, emotional, and social abilities that will help them to become creative, productive individuals in society.
- To teach basic learning skills to student so they may attain competency consistent with their abilities.
- To maintain an educational system where students' progress is based on achievement.
- To provide a course of study designed to train students in the field(s) that best fit their interests and abilities, one that fits the needs of the college-bound student as well as the student destined for the world of work.
- To stimulate the development of students through involving them in the learning process with provisions made for individual interests. Each classroom should be a happy, wholesome situation.

- To encourage participation in extracurricular activities as a learning experience.
- To provide a program of activities in music, art, dramatics, health, and physical education in which the student will find self-expression and a wholesome outlet during leisure time.
- To encourage each child to cultivate high ethical and moral standards. Each teacher should be aware of the responsibility for this important phase of the educative process.
- To help each child recognize his/her responsibilities as a citizen with proper respect for authority and civil law as well as for school law. The child must be taught to have an understanding of and respect for patriotism so that s/he may have an earnest desire to promote the general welfare of all people.
- To encourage each department or classroom of the school to be cooperative with other departments or classrooms with the welfare of all students and the entire school as their prime objective.
- To furnish school buildings, equipment, books, and materials of quality that will be conducive to the highest achievement of each child.

In order to accomplish these goals, the citizens of Whitley County must be expected to provide for the total educational program and cooperate with the school staff in reaching the goals of democratic education.

Educational Beliefs

- We believe that education improves the quality of life.
- We believe that student values are influenced by family support.
- We believe that a positive self-image is essential.
- We believe that education is valuable to the individual and to the community.

All District employees are covered by Workers' Compensation Insurance for injuries and illness sustained during the course and scope of their job. Work-related injuries must be reported immediately to the appropriate supervisor. Disability wages and medical benefits are provided if a claim is found to be compensable.

Disability wages are calculated using the state formula and wage loss is not payable to an employee for the first seven (7) calendar days of disability. Employees who elect to use available sick leave may keep benefits intact.

In order to maintain full salary, employees may voluntarily elect to use sick leave to which they are entitled. To coordinate benefits in connection with the employee's election to use sick leave, the employee shall pay to the District a sum equal to workers' compensation income benefits received for the same period that the employee uses sick leave. The employee may make such payment by endorsing the workers' compensation benefits check to the District or by paying the District by personal check or cash. The employee's sick leave balance shall then be reinstated to the extent of such payment.

State-sponsored coverage begins on the first day of the second month following the date of employment.

If employment terminates or an employee enters leave without pay status with no FMLA protection between the 1st and the 15th of the month, health insurance coverage will terminate on the 15th of the same month. If employment terminates or an employee enters leave without pay status with no FMLA protection between the 16th and the end of the month, health insurance coverage will terminate on the last day of the same month. Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) and Health Reimbursement Accounts (HRAs) end on the same day employment terminates, regardless of when that occurs.

Medical premiums are automatically pre-taxed unless otherwise specified. (See also Family and Medical Leave - ✓Policies 03.12322/03.22322)

Life Insurance

A $20,000 term life insurance policy is provided by the Commonwealth of Kentucky for all health insurance eligible employees. Eligible employees have the option to convert this insurance over to direct pay at the time of termination or retirement. Unemployment compensation benefits are not available during periods of scheduled breaks in the work calendar. Such breaks begin at the close of the last workday immediately preceding a scheduled break. Unless an official work calendar changes, employees are expected to work or use appropriate leave.

All full-time and part-time classified personnel as well as substitute personnel are hereby provided reasonable assurance by the District of continued employment, unless provided notice to the contrary. Although the services of certain employees are not needed during the summer vacation period or established holiday periods, they are still considered to be employees of the District. Consistent with the provisions of KRS 341.360, these employees shall not be paid unemployment compensation benefits for any period when no services are scheduled to be performed.

Insurance Coverage While on Leave of Absence

Employees on a leave of absence have the option to continue their medical (see CORBA section), life, cancer, dental, and disability insurance coverage during the term of the leave of absence. Such employees will be notified in writing regarding necessary action to obtain continuous coverages. Employees shall have the responsibility to continue insurance coverage when they are granted leave of absence, resign, or are terminated. (See also Workers' Compensation and Family and Medical Leave Act.)

Flexible Spending account (FSA)

A Flexible Spending Account (FSA) allows employees to designate a certain amount of their taxable income on a pre-tax basis to be reimbursed for out-of-pocket medical and dependent care expenses. There are three types of FSA plans:

State Funded Health Care Spending – Employees who waive coverage may participate in the State Funded Health Reimbursement Account (HRA).

Medical Reimbursement Account – Employees may elect to have some of their own money deducted from their paychecks and placed in a Healthcare Flexible Spending Account (FSA). This money can be used to pay for out of pocket health care expenses that are not reimbursed from any other source.

Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account - Money from this account can be used to pay for childcare expenses which are incurred for qualified dependents.

Employees must complete a Health Insurance Application annually to enroll in any of the FSA plans. For more information, employees may contact the State Office of Employee Health Insurance. Flexible spending Accounts (FSAs) and Health Reimbursement Accounts (HRAs) end on the same day employment terminates, regardless of when that occurs.

Salaries and Payroll Distribution

All personnel are paid in accordance with Board-adopted salary schedules. Checks and direct deposit vouchers are issued according to a schedule approved annually by the Board. At the end of the school year, employees who have completed their duties may request to be paid their remaining salary before the end of the fiscal year (June 30). ✓Policies 03.121/03.221

Direct Deposit

Direct deposit of payroll (DDP) is a mandatory benefit provided to employees at no cost. It is a service which causes the employee's net pay to be credited automatically to the employee's checking, savings, negotiable order of withdrawal (NOW), or share draft account. Virtually all commercial banks, savings and loans, saving banks, and credit unions participate in the network that makes this possible. The employee's net pay is credited to the employee's account on pay day without the employee having to make a trip to the institution. This is particularly convenient and safe when the employee is sick, on vacation, or on some other form of leave on pay day.

Employees using DDP no longer receive a check on pay day. The employee will continue to receive an electronic pay voucher with the details of gross pay for the period and all withholdings, authorized deductions, and the net pay amount credited to the employee's account.

All employees, including substitute employees, shall participate in DDP. It may take up to 3 pay periods for DPP to take effect. In the meantime, the employee will receive a paper paycheck.

Direct deposit forms can be obtained from the Human Resources Department.

Certified Personnel: Teachers receive their annual salary in 12 equal monthly payments. Salaries for certified personnel are based on a single-salary schedule reflecting the school term as approved by the Board in keeping with statutory requirements. Compensation for additional days of employment is prorated on the employee's base pay.

Teachers who resign after the beginning of the school year will receive a pay-off check for days worked. For those teachers who are hired or returning to work from a leave of absence after the beginning of the school year, the number of remaining days is multiplied by the daily rate and divided equally among the remaining pay checks for the school year.

One (1) year of experience credit step-up requires employment for a minimum of 140 paid days as a Whitley County certified employee in a single school year and performance of teaching duties for the equivalent of at least seventy (70) full school days during that school year, regardless of the schedule on which those duties are performed. Twelve –month salaried certified staff must work 70% of the school calendar to be credited with one (1) year of experience. Teachers who perform teaching duties for the equivalent of at least 140 days during two (2) consecutive school years shall be credited with one (1) year of experience. ✓Procedure 03.121 AP.1

Credits and/or rank changes to be considered in determining the salary of a teacher must be completed prior to September 15 with appropriate documentation submitted to the Department of Human Resources prior to September 15th. Candidates for National Board certifications shall notify the Superintendent/designee (Human Resources) in writing prior to September 15th that certification is pending in order for the employee to receive any rank-related increase retroactive to the beginning of the school year.

No later than forty-five (45) days before the first student attendance day of each year or June 15th, whichever comes first, the Superintendent will notify certified personnel of the best estimate of their salary for the coming year. ✓Policy 03.121

Classified Personnel: All classified personnel are either paid on an hourly or salary basis and in accordance with the Board-approved payment schedule. Experience credits will be determined by the Director of Human Resources.

A classified employee shall earn one (1) year of experience credit for step-up on the salary schedule when the employee has received pay for a minimum of 70% of the annual work calendar. ✓Procedure 03.221 AP.1

All voluntary payroll deductions will remain in effect for each paycheck during the scheduled deductions period until a change or cancellation notice is received in the Payroll Office. Upon receipt of such notice the payroll office will put into effect such change/cancellation on the next appropriate scheduled pay date.

Should the Board-owned vehicle become incapacitated while out of District, reimbursement will be made for emergency repairs or road service. However, the employee must first contact the Director of Transportation or Superintendent for permission before obligating the Board for major repairs to the vehicle.

Family and Medical Leave

Eligible employees are entitled to a maximum of 12 workweeks of Family and Medical Leave per year.

Employees are eligible for up to twelve (12) workweeks of family and medical leave each school year, if they have been employed by the District for twelve (12) months, have worked at least 1,250 hours during the twelve (12) months preceding the start of the leave (measurement is taken from the previous school year), and otherwise qualify for family and medical leave for one of the reasons below:

1. For the birth and care of an employee's newborn child or for placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
2. To care for the employee's spouse, child, or parent who has a serious health condition, as defined by federal law;
3. For an employee's own serious health condition, as defined by federal law, that makes the employee unable to perform his/her duties;
4. To address a qualifying exigency (need) defined by federal regulation arising out of the covered active duty or call to active duty involving deployment to a foreign country of the employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent who serves in a reserve component or as an active or retired member of the Regular Armed Forces or Reserve in support of a contingency operation; and
5. To care for a covered servicemember (spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin) who has incurred or aggravated a serious injury or illness in the line of duty while on active duty in the Armed Forces that has rendered or may render the family member medically unfit to perform his/her duties or to care for a covered veteran with a serious injury or illness as defined by federal regulations.

When family and medical military caregiver leave is taken based on a serious illness or injury of a covered servicemember, an eligible employee may take up to twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave during a single twelve-month period.

Paid leave used under this policy will be subtracted from the 12 workweeks to which the employee is entitled. Employees should contact their immediate supervisor as soon as they know they will need to use FML. ✓ Policies 03.12322/03.22322

The required paperwork for requesting a leave can be obtained from the Human Resources Department. Completed paperwork must be returned to the Personnel Department prior to the beginning of the leave.

Following is a summary of the major provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provided by the United States Department of Labor.

FML Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements - Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

*The FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current servicemember and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition".

Benefits and Protections - During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements - Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

*Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition - A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave - An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave - Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities - Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave.

Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities - Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers - FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to: interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided or to discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement - An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer. FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.
