

A parade is fun!

A

The Parade

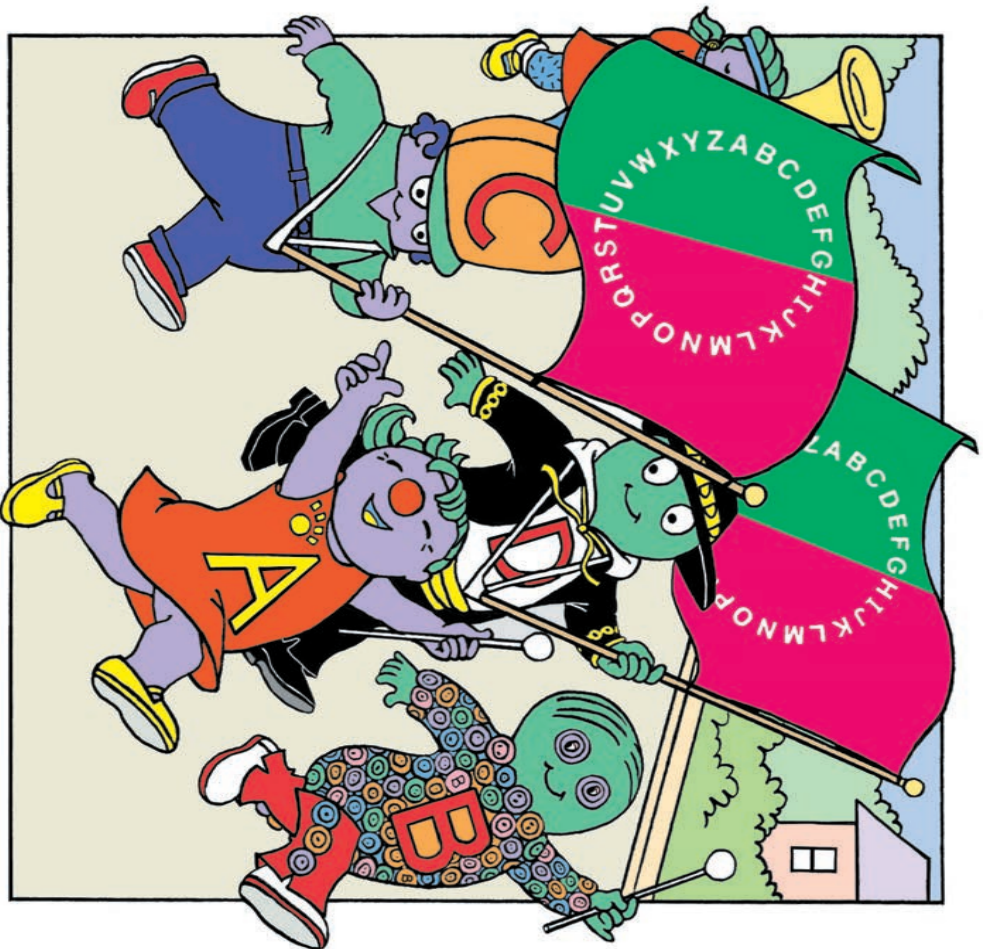

AT HOME

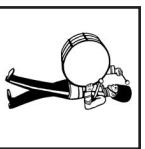

Before reading, page through the book and have your child name the characters and tell what they are doing. Then read the book aloud, pausing for your child to chime in with words he or she knows.

After reading, play a guessing game. Act out your favorite part of a parade for your child to guess. Then switch roles.

Written by Cynthia Cappetta
Illustrated by Barbara Yeagle

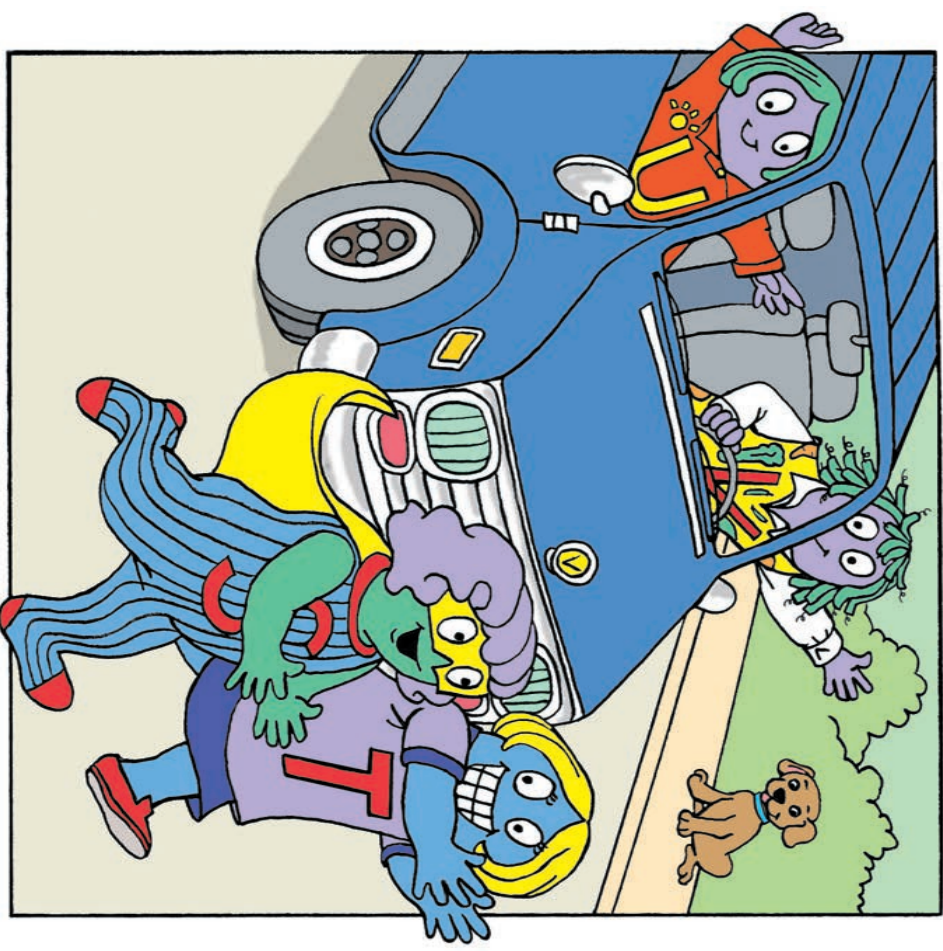

Look! It is a parade!

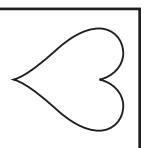

fold

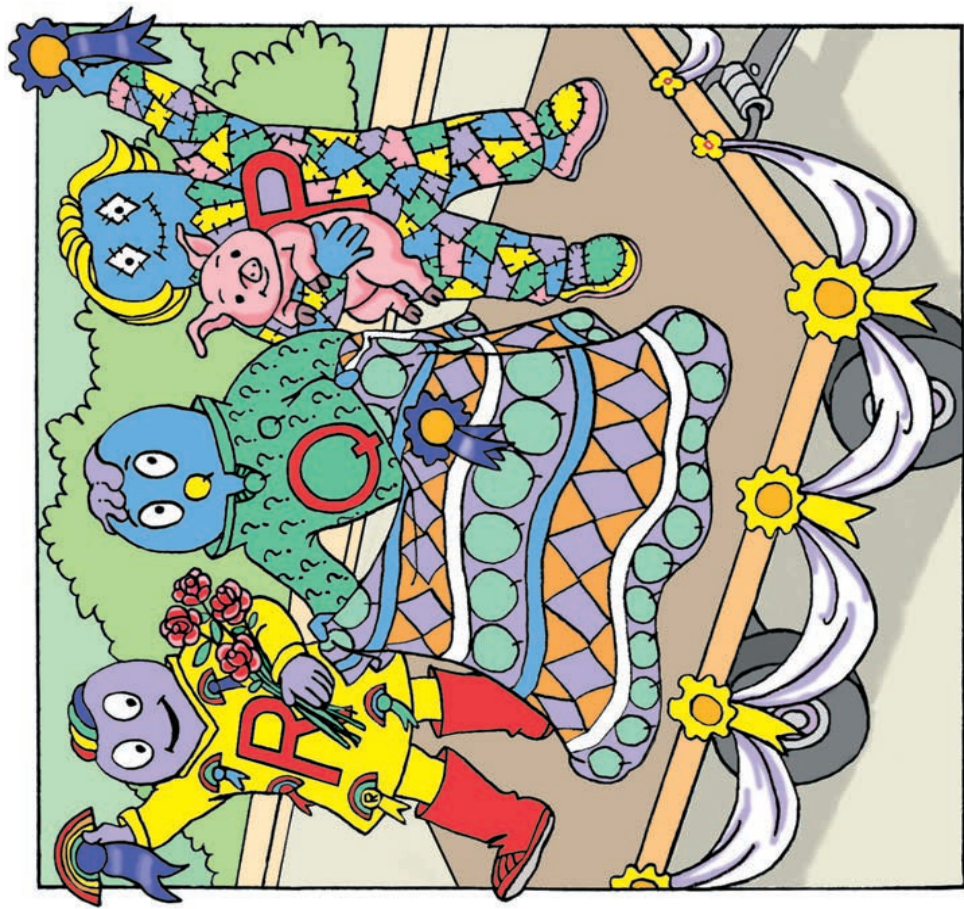

B

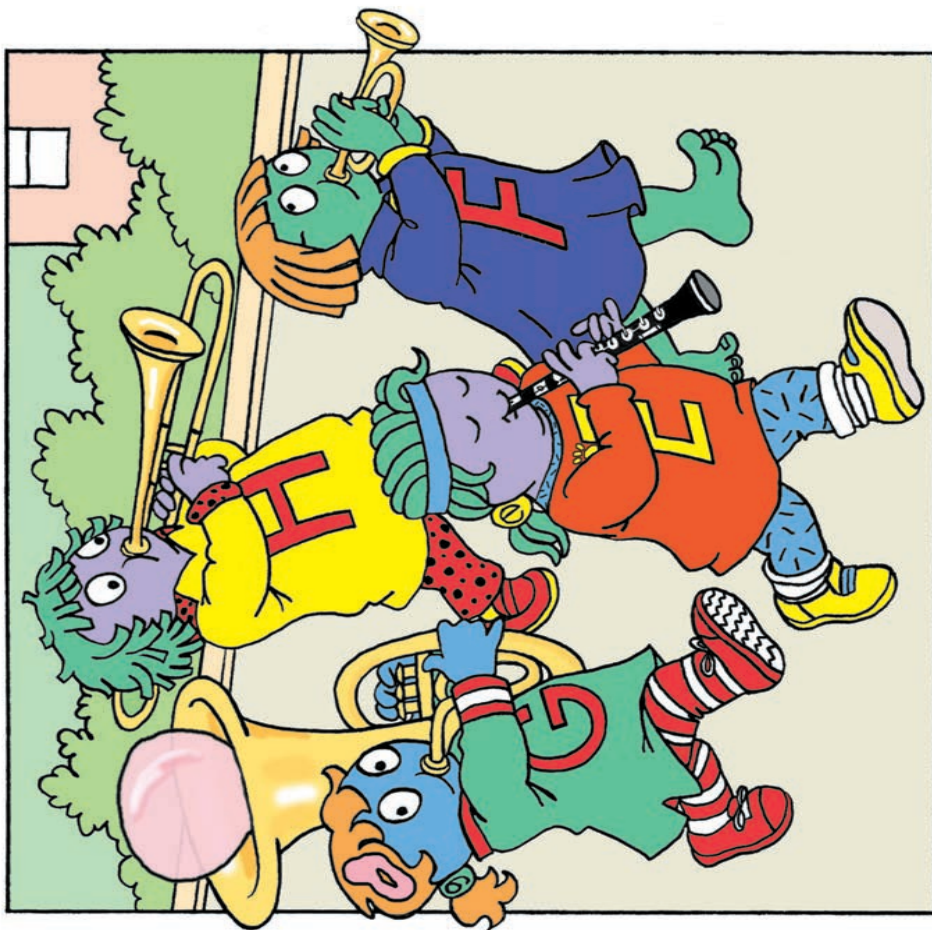

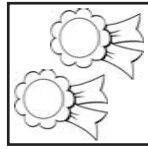

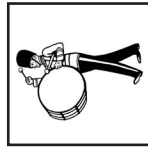

We love a parade!

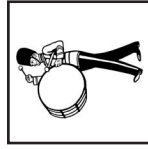

C

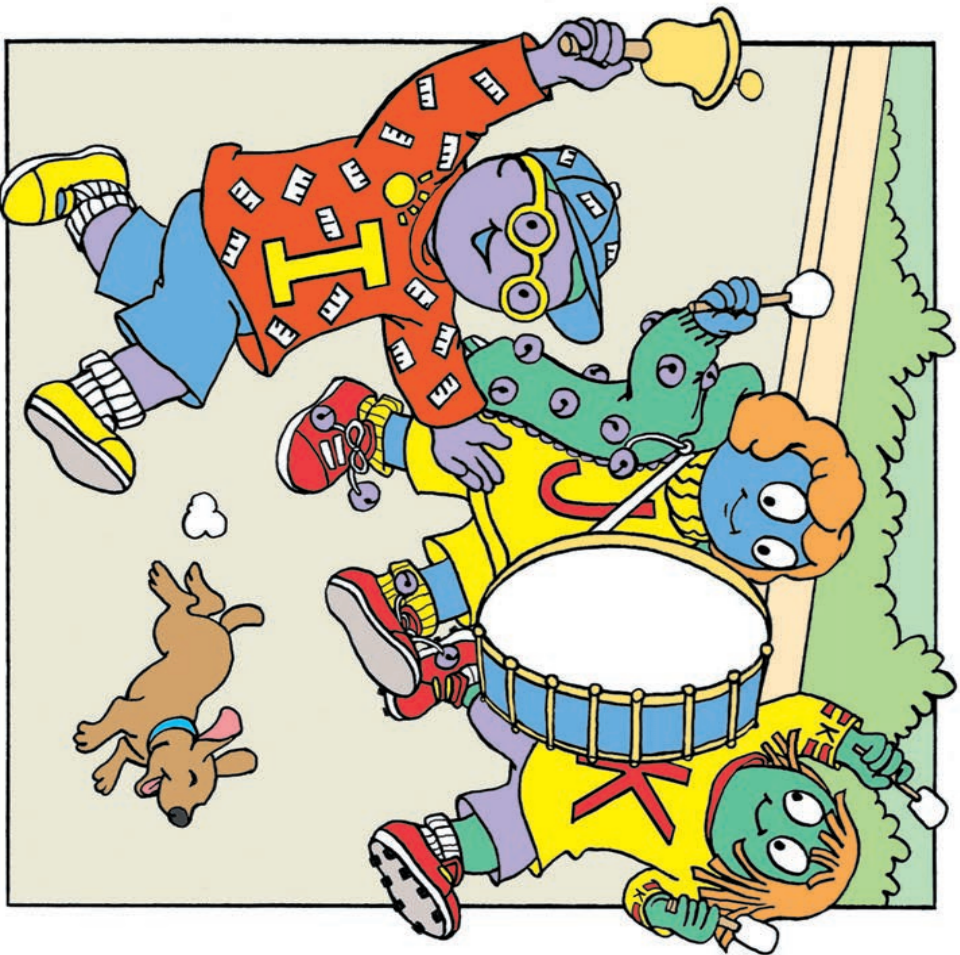

A parade has ribbons.

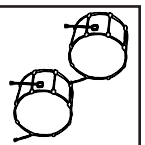

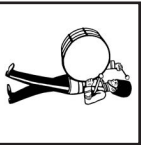

A parade has music.

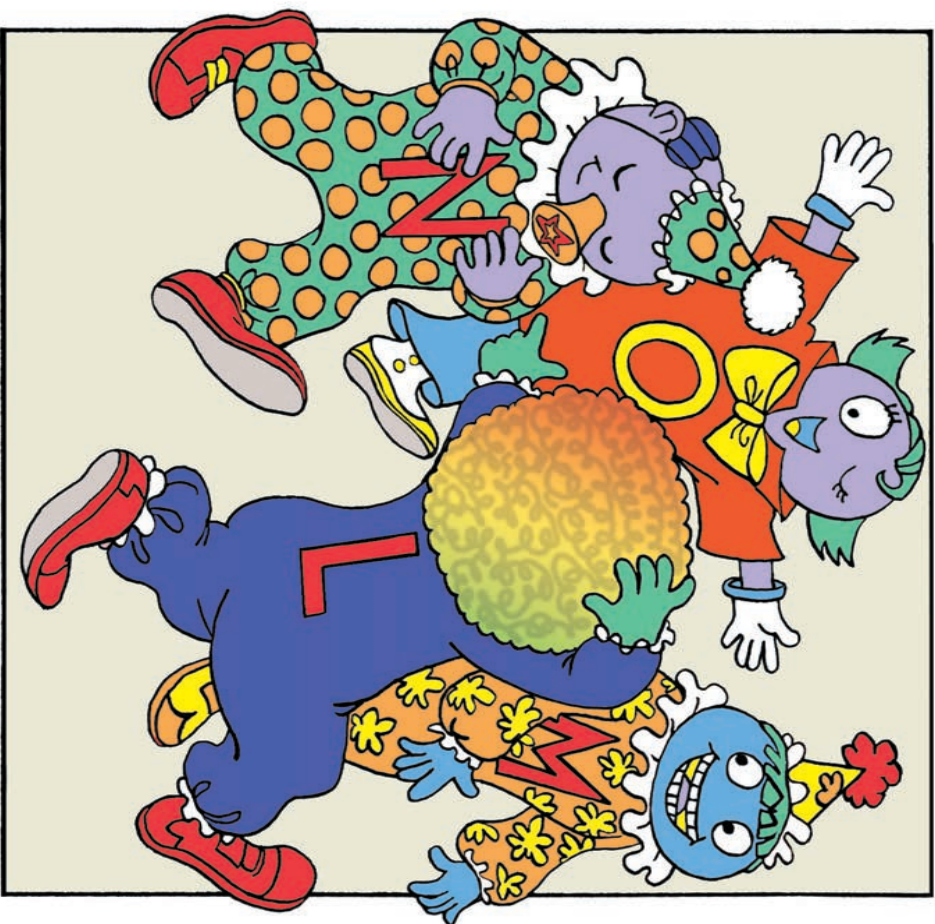

A parade has drums.

fold

D

A parade has clowns.

