Principals Report:

Mrs. Linn, the Best assembly was today. We are working on PBIS each month. Working on something new each month.

In January we worked on arrival and dismissal.

Using the cool down benches.

Still working with the students on Bus and Best Bucks.

Looking at data to see what we need to work on next.

Continuing to work on voice levels in the lunchroom. "Quiet Roadrunner" a hand signal to let others know to be quiet around you and to help get the students to lower voices.

March is Reading month.

March is the battle of the books.

March 6th we are hosting a school board study and to show off the renovations of our school.

Literacy coaches are doing great and using different resources.

Goals continuing to build relationships with staff and students.

Attendance We need to keep attendance up. Especially on Fridays.

Someone will be coming out to analyze the traffic in the parent drop off loop soon.

No School on February Monday 20th.

Staff Report:

1st Grade (Mrs. Dennis) Wrapping up economics needs vs wants. What do we learn from books? Opinion writing, agree and disagree. All students WINTER GEAR IS A MUST. We go out at 15 degrees and above.

2nd Grade (Mrs. Smith) Same as January

3rd Grade

4th Grade (Mrs. Dennis for 4th grade) Staff and students on board for the signs.

Riverside will be hosting the 4th grade party June 12th.

Art (Ms. Werner) Tuesday May 9th 2023 will be the Art show along with the Book Fair. The art show will be an epic animal event! The students will be making animal bowls. Each grade will get an animal that they have been learning about in class. The empty bowl project, similar to blessings in a backpack will be displayed in the gym. The students' art bowls will be displayed with food in it and a raffle will be held to raffle off what's in the bowl. More information to follow on this upcoming event.

Presidents Report:

Candy Grams have been sent out to every student. $1 per gram to send to friends. This is optional.
Helping Hearts information will be sent out to students.
March is Black history month. There will be a weekly book recommendation and quote to encourage families to talk about the history.
