MENA: MIDDLE EASTERN / NORTH AFRICAN

Sponsor(s): Andrew Jones, anjones@hse.k12.in.us

Description: The club is to be considered a safe space for those who are North African or Middle Eastern (although this club is welcome to everyone!), because those from said origins tend to be confused sometimes. It is also meant to bring us together because being in a foreign country alone with few family & friends can be lonely. By bringing students together, the goal is to abate loneliness and homesickness. It is a great chance to meet each other and stand together.

Social Media: TBD

Membership Requirements: Welcome to anyone!

Club Meeting Info: Once a week after school in the CCA; schedule TBD.

MILLION MEAL MOVEMENT CLUB

Sponsor(s): Kate Young, kyoung@hse.k12.in.us

Description: This club will focus on finding a way to involve students in helping food banks and the underprivileged. We will hold multiple fundraisers yearly, so that the student body can still contribute even if they are not full-time members of the club. Monthly trips to various food banks, as well as packaging and delivering food will be our main objectives.

Membership Requirements: open to everyone

Club Meeting Info: 1st and 4th weeks of each month; dates TBD

MOCK TRIAL

Sponsor(s): Corbin Mathias, cmathias@hse.k12.in.us

Description: Take on the role of a witness, a lawyer, or a defendant and compete against other schools in a REAL courtroom with a REAL judge presiding. The team that makes the most compelling argument for their side wins! Perfect for anyone interested in acting, law, and having fun. FHS fields both a Varsity and a JV team.

Social Media: @HerrMathias

Membership Requirements: Must participate in tryouts. If you make the team, there is a (roughly) $25-40 activity fee. Contact Mr. Mathias with any questions!

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Sponsor(s): Jennifer Gabbard, jgabbard@hse.k12.in.us / Jenna Pritchard, jpritchard@hse.k12.in.us

Description: Model United Nations is an opportunity for students to apply their knowledge and skills in a real-world situation. Students learn and become “delegates” to various committees within the United Nations and then role-play through the procedures, debates, and negotiations that take place during UN meetings. During regular meetings and at optional competitions (both local and out-of-state), delegates work together to develop resolutions that solve a particular problem or provide new solutions to existing concerns. The skills necessary to do well in Model UN come from all disciplines, and no previous experience is required. Students share one common trait: they care and/or want to know more about the world around them. Want to know even more? See here.

Social Media: Remind - text @FHSMUN to 81010 / Twitter - @FishersMUN / Instagram - fishersmun
