

Dr. Julie Alspach

Dr. Julie Alspach was appointed to the Board of Education in May 2023. Her term continues through December 31, 2024.

Julie earned a doctoral degree in educational leadership, an educational specialist degree in educational organization, and a master's in special education from Oakland University. She holds a bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan University and an educational certification in elementary, secondary (English), administration, and special education.

Julie is the executive director of virtual learning for the Detroit Public Schools Community District. She grew up in the greater Rochester area, attending Rochester Community Schools, grades K-12, and remains a resident with her husband, Vance. Together, they have three adult children who are also graduates of the district.