Principal's Message

Bruce Hill

Northbrook Middle (NMS) is focused on the well-being of students and is committed to creating an invigorating learning environment that empowers them to realize their full potential. We strive to foster a dynamic atmosphere where students can thrive both inside and outside the classroom. With a wide range of courses and extracurricular activities, we offer numerous opportunities for students to explore their passions and develop a strong sense of identity. Our goal is to help students chart their own paths to success by cultivating SBISD's Core Characteristics of a T-2-4 Ready Graduate.

About Northbrook Middle

Focusing on equipping learners to thrive in a highly diverse and interconnected global community, NMS emphasizes top-notch instruction with personalized support from exceptional educators. The school offers 13 advanced academic classes that challenge students to push themselves and ensure they are prepared for high school. Students can choose from 38 elective options and a wide range of extracurriculars, empowering them to discover their passions, interests, and talents. At NMS, students gain valuable skills, broaden their horizons, and develop a more comprehensive understanding of various disciplines, helping them make informed decisions about their future.

Choice Program

YES Prep at NMS is an SBISD choice program. Enrollment applications are through an open lottery system. YES Prep students engage in a unique learning experience through project-based learning and a collaborative teaching approach. While traditional athletics are not offered, Yes Prep presents captivating opportunities for students to cultivate their skills in various domains.

Student Supports

NMS is dedicated to nurturing the holistic growth of its students, placing a strong emphasis on collaboration between the professional school counselor, staff, students, families, and the wider community. The school takes immense pride in offering comprehensive support to students, encompassing their academic, emotional, and personal well-being. Central to Northbrook Middle's student support system are the academic support classes, tailored to meet diverse needs such as skill development, state assessment preparation, and enrichment programs. By prioritizing fundamental skills, students can establish a solid groundwork to further enhance their academic capabilities.
