

11TH GRADE ELA-READING

Students make a connection to the American Dream through reading about many perspectives in different times and situations

- Students will analyze a variety of writings from various artist on the American Dream

- Students will use a novel to interpret text from a historical perspective and the devices used in drama to evoke emotion

- Students will focus on persuasion as they analyze written arguments.

- Students will connect back to unit one and examine the American Dream through the Harlem Renaissance

11TH GRADE ELA- WRITING

- Students will define their idea of the American Dream and how it fits into their goals

- Students will present a persuasive speech to sway their audience through tone and voice

- Students will focus on satire to defend or refute claims and change society

- Students will write analytical essays and present about historical literature movements