Title

Recognition of Cherokee County School District 2023 School Nutrition Team of the Year Award Winners

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Cherokee County School District School Nutrition Team of the Year Award Winners

Summary Explanation and Background

The Cherokee County School District is celebrating the first-ever winners of its new School Nutrition Team of the Year awards!

The new awards program gives cafeteria teams the opportunity to win prizes by achieving specific goals, called the "Six Servings of Success," related to improving their service to students, teachers and staff.

Clark Creek Elementary School STEM Academy is the elementary division winner, and E.T. Booth Middle School is the middle school/high school/center division winner.

The Clark Creek cafeteria team is led by manager Linda Page and assistant manager Patricia Millwood and is made up of: Rebecca Anderson, Christina Carter, Martha Dupree, Consuelo Guzman, Laura Holizna, Dania Reed and Gaylor Vines. The E.T. Booth cafeteria team is led by manager Erika Smith and assistant manager Tammy Poulnot and is made up of: Imelda Alcantara-Martinez, Diana Cole, Cassandra Corey, Tracey Douglas, Judit Hailu, Lisa LaCotti, Carmen Parkoo and Savannah Rolfe. The Cherokee County Educational Foundation sponsored the awards, with additional prizes from PMR, The Hansen Group, CGA Reps Food Service Equipment, PACE Reps, Credit Union of Georgia and other sponsors.
