

Code: CCCAA
Adopted: June 24, 2006

Reassignment of Building Administrators

When a principal position becomes vacant or when a new position is established, principals currently employed by the district may request reassignment to the vacant or new position.

At the discretion of the superintendent, vacant or new positions may be filled from among the ranks of administrators currently employed by the district without having considered applicants not presently employed by the district or employed by the district in other positions.

Principals shall be eligible to apply for other administrative and supervisory positions or request reassignment to a teaching position.
