Parental Release

I understand that the application procedure includes a review of achievements. I understand that all information obtained in the application is confidential and will only be seen by the Admissions Committee and administration. I understand that the procedures of the Admissions Committee are necessary to evaluate my child's application. I understand that not all students are accepted into Warren Tech. I understand and will be in accord with the decision of the Admissions Committee.

I hereby authorize the release of any educational, health, guidance, or Child Study Team* records and evaluations to the Warren County Technical School.

I understand that Warren County Technical School is not legally obligated to provide my child with an education; that is the obligation of my district of residence. I understand that it is my obligation and that of my district of residence, to provide accurate, up to date information to Warren County Technical School, and if that information is incomplete or incorrect, Warren County Technical School may revoke admission.

I understand that Warren County Technical School may terminate enrollment of any student and return the student to their local high school if the student does not abide by the policies and regulations as reflected in the code of student conduct or if Warren County Technical School is unable to accommodate a student's individual learning needs. I understand that any specific educational services required by a student that Warren County Technical School cannot accommodate within its standard protocols are the obligation of the district of residence.

**Child study team records will not be collected until an acceptance has been determined, OR with consent to provide the necessary accommodations on the admissions test. Students with IEPs and 504s will receive those test accommodations and modifications once the admissions office has received the salient portion of the IEP or 504. It is the applicant's responsibility to follow up with their current school to ensure they have sent the test accommodations to the admissions office email, admissions@wctech.org. This must be done a minimum of one week before the applicant's test date.*
