XI. Board Comments

Vice-President Maria Venuto acknowledged the senior walk through event where the senior's walked through the elementary buildings and the middle school in their caps and gowns high fiving their former teachers and current student's. Vice-President Venuto personally stated it was a marvelous event.

Dr. Maria Rianna stated the amount of our senior students that participated in the senior walk through event has grown over the years with many more students attending the event.

Vice-President Maria Venuto shared that she attended along with three other Board of Education trustees (Lavine, Jimenez and Raimo) the Nassau- Suffolk School Boards Association Annual Business Dinner Meeting several weeks ago.

Trustee Meghan Lavine mentioned a facilities workshop that took place last week. It's the second one that they met with John Grillo, the architect, where he went over all our schools, athletic facility, the infrastructure. The meeting was lived streamed and she hopes everyone got to watch it and if not it's on the district website for viewing. Looking forward to more conversations moving forward. Also thanked the PTA's for all that they put into this years events as well as the various donations that were given and looks forward to next year.

Trustee Angela Raimo also thanked the PTA's. Trustee Raimo also mentioned the dedication yesterday at Deasy for the Carter boys where the PTA donated two basketball hoops. The Carter boy's mother was in attendance at the dedication and Romello was able to view the event via FaceTime and speak to a bunch of the kids. The PTA's really do some great things.

Dr. Rianna thanked the PTA's, GCTA and Board of Education for attending a three and a half hour consensus training workshop.
