More than 1,000 nominations from coaches, principals, athletic directors, teachers, and parents were submitted, representing more than 115 public and private schools in Western Pennsylvania. Former Super Bowl MVP and Pittsburgh Steelers star Hines Ward and businessman Scott Pederson created Positive Athlete nine years ago as a movement for more positivity in youth sports. In addition to excellence on the field, each nominated positive athlete is required to show characteristics such as an optimistic attitude, teammate encouragement, servant leadership, heart for others, ability to admit imperfections, giving 100% at all times, and realizing the team is more important than the individual.

This past spring, Trevor set a new student fundraising record for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) when he raised $250,000 for the region which comprises a five-state area. In recognition of his efforts, Trevor was named an LLS Student Visionary of the Year for 2023.

“Each year we put out a search for kids with positive attitudes whose efforts don’t necessarily show up on the stat sheets,” said Mr. Pederson. “These kids are also positive role models in their schools who get involved in charitable causes, have already learned the meaning of giving back at an early age, and many have overcome difficult circumstances and remained positive.”
