

ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNER SNAPSHOT

ELEMENTARY - Reclassification is the process for determining that an English Language Learner (ELL) has become Fluent English Proficient. This student report is designed to help you understand what that process is and to provide data that you can act on. Data last updated on November 8, 2019. For comments or questions, email rattana.yeang@ousd.org.

Are you making progress towards becoming a proficient reader?

The Reading Inventory (RI) is a test that tells students how well they are reading by measuring reading comprehension with a lexile score. Your performance on this test is important because the results are used to help us determine if you are ready for reclassification.

	Midyear 2019-20 Lexile	Fall 2019-20 Lexile	Spring 2018-19 Lexile	Midyear 2018-19 Lexile
Your Score		597	468	426
Target		600	600	550

Teachers may also use results from Fountas & Pinnell (F&P) or the Developmental Reading Assessment (DRA) as supporting evidence to help determine if you are ready for reclassification. Both tests provide additional information about your reading abilities.

	Midyear 2019-20 DRA or F&P	Fall 2019-20 DRA or F&P	Spring 2018-19 DRA or F&P	Midyear 2018-19 DRA or F&P
Your Score		F&P - R	F&P - T

Did you pass your teacher evaluation?

If you meet the other reclassification requirements, your teachers will need to give the final approval. One way your teacher will decide is based on your Reading and Writing report card grades. You will have a much better chance of reclassifying if you have at least a 3 on your report card if you are in 1st or 2nd grade or at least a 2 on your report card if you are in 3rd to 5th.
