IMPACT REPORT

JUL 2021 | DEC 2022

Our zeal is always guided by charity. Everything is done with strength and gentleness.

~ Blessed Basil Moreau, C.S.C.

WELCOME

Dear Benefactors,

Welcome to the first Impact Report for Moreau Catholic High School. While we have been providing yearly Annual Reports to all of our constituents, with this issue we launch our formal Impact Report provided directly to our generous benefactors. The intention of our report is to tell the story of your contributions and the impression they have made on our school community over the last year and a half. Additionally, we have highlighted the results of our recent major fundraising event and appeal focused on our Tuition Assistance Program, as well as our yearly scholarships and endowment.

Returning to Moreau Catholic High School in this new role has provided me the opportunity to more closely understand the impact of our beautiful Holy Cross mission on the lives of our students, their families, our faculty and staff, and consequently our larger community and world. Our charism and program design are truly unique, and you play a key role in ensuring we fulfill our mission of educating hearts and minds.

Please enjoy our report, in particular the words from our school leaders, students, alumni, and board members. And please know of the sincerest appreciation we hold for your continued generosity in partnering with us on this beautiful journey. We feel truly blessed!

Go Mariners!

I've always been afraid of not having money, so [this scholarship] helps ease that. And I feel like I'm doing something good. I'm able to help out my mom, so she's not the only one that is helping put money towards this because she really values education... [This scholarship] helps push me up so that it's easier for me to get into a college, and it helps me prepare to make sure that colleges can actually see what I can do.

“As an alumni parent, I think part of the reason I give is I see the success that most definitely can be attributed to Moreau and the education that my children got. As a parent, you want something better for your kids than even you had. So I feel like I’ve provided my kids the best education they had, and I think that has led to their success, both professionally and personally.”

PRINCIPAL

Colleen Galloway '77 has seen many changes to Moreau Catholic from her time as a student to her role now as principal. She shares: “The impact those students [who receive tuition assistance] have on our community, not just the gifts that they bring and the different perspectives they bring, but then that allows and sometimes challenges everybody else in the community to see the power and value of diversity. It’s not just acceptance. We see the strength in it. We see how it adds to the fuller picture. Then I think that allows our students and our adults to experience people from different backgrounds. Different in all areas... And that allows them to understand the best way to find common ground... As an administrator, that’s a little bit of a rush knowing that we’re giving these students an opportunity that they wouldn’t have had. It’s not about saving them, they don’t need saving. But giving them an opportunity and then all of the other options because of the Moreau education. It feels really good.”

KRISTIN HANNON '02 ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL OF INSTRUCTION

Kristin (Graham) '02 and her husband, Kendal Hannon '02, come from a family tradition of Mariner education. Their grandparents sent 19 of their children through Moreau Catholic. "That was a big sacrifice," she shares, "but they really believed strongly [in giving] their kids a Catholic and high-quality education." Hannon, who personally benefited from the Br. Gary Stone, C.S.C. scholarship while attending Moreau Catholic, supports two scholarships created in honor of her in-laws: the Hannon Family Band Scholarship and the William and Monica Hannon Memorial Scholarship.

As A.P. of Instruction, she sees the daily impact of such donations on students:

"We're continuing to...make Moreau accessible to more students who otherwise would not have an opportunity to come here. That's life-changing, that's trajectory changing for people who might get lost in a big school. Students who might not be pushed to their full potential are seen here, are given opportunities here to grow in leadership skills here in ways that they might not otherwise be able to, then have more college options and career options open up to them as a result. That's incredibly impactful. Donations also allow us to give our students access to learning tools that they otherwise might not get, like robotics and lab supplies for science, and opportunities for field trips to get outside of the school and see things and be hands-on. Your gifts here make a real impact on students. They will be used in our student programs, and students will benefit from them directly."

PAUL MCKENNA '83

TECHNOLOGY AND MEDIA ARTS DEPT. CHAIR

"This year's student fundraiser enabled us to upgrade more than anticipated. We purchased two new JVC studio cameras and the latest switching system—the cornerstone of our live production—from Broadcast Pix, which features more professional quality elements and an enhanced streaming platform. The cameras provide us with the most up-to-date picture quality and output versatility.

I have had many students major in broadcast production in college and report back that they seamlessly transitioned to those studio setups because we set them up well to continue their learning at the next level.

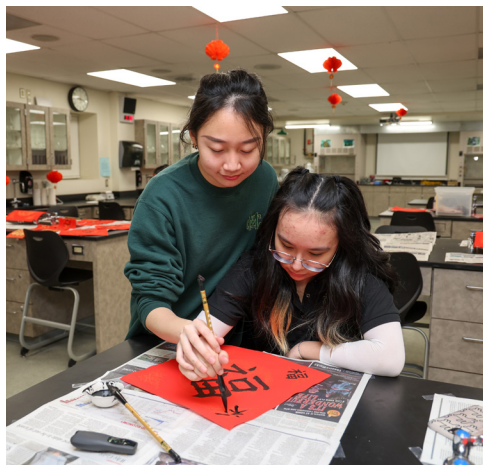

We've aired over 500 MCTV shows since 2007, and it is important that we keep our community engaged in what we are producing. The investment in new equipment helps us to do that."

FR. MOREAU DAY

Connecting Communities

PETER SMITH-SHELLEY

DIRECTOR OF HOLY CROSS MISSION

"I am reminded of the first Holy Cross high school founded by Fr. Moreau, in Le Mans, France in 1835. Early on there were many obstacles that stood in the way of the school's survival and success. Fr. Moreau immediately got the support and influence of local parents, which was a critical component for the school to excel.

The education of the whole student remains paramount to our Holy Cross tradition. Our commitment to excellence in academics, athletics, and the arts, is confronted by the reality of a tuition gap.

Our parents provide us the profound opportunity to partner in the education of their children for four years, and their support of the Parent Pledge Program honors our Holy Cross history and continues our mission to educate the hearts and minds of Mariners today and tomorrow."

NAVIGATING OUR FUTURE

DR. LIZ GUNERATNE, PRESIDENT

It is an honor to build upon our tradition of excellence here at Moreau Catholic High School. We have faced many challenges in the past few years together, and with the generous support of friends like you we have only grown stronger. Our future is bright and we are excited to share some exciting changes on deck.

We will be adding solar panels soon to a portion of our hillside! In addition to reducing carbon emissions and creating more clean energy, we will be reducing our future electricity bills. This project will help us advance environmental and financial sustainability, and aligns with our mission and Holy Cross values.

We continue to promote excellence in academics, athletics, and the arts as we work tirelessly with our phenomenal faculty, staff, coaches and leaders to prepare our students for better times than these. We have plans to not only maintain but grow our academic offerings, co-curricular programs, enrollment, and facilities.

We are beginning a capital campaign feasibility study to support a new Center for Music, Social Justice, and Transformation... you will hear more about this exciting new project in the days ahead. For now, we simply wish to thank you.

On behalf of the Brothers of the Holy Cross, our Board of Trustees, our Leadership Team, Faculty, Staff, Families, Alumni and Beloved Students, thank you for being family with us. We truly appreciate your partnership. Your investment empowers us to live out our mission and transform our world. Our future is full of hope because of you.

With grateful hearts, we celebrate the transformational impact you have had upon our Mariner family, and the transformational impact that our students will have upon our world because of you. We thank you for your continued support, welcome your thoughts and ideas, and look forward to seeing you on campus soon. Go Mariners!
