

RESOURCE/COMMUNITY GUIDE

2-1-1 Vermont: Dial 2-1-1 for information about health and human services and organizations in your community. A local call anywhere in Vermont. A free, confidential service available 24 hours/7 days. For everyday needs and difficult times, 2-1-1 is a connection to thousands of resources across Vermont.

Phone: 802-652-4636

Website: <https://www.vermont211.org/>

4-H: Opportunities for kids, parents, and volunteers to be part of an organization that prides itself in reaching youth through life-and job-skill development programs. The in-person and virtual programs build connection, a critical component in positive youth development.

Phone: 1-800-281-6977

Website: <https://www.uvm.edu/extension/youth>

Advocacy, Resources, Community (ARC): Our mission is to advocate for the right of individuals with developmental disabilities and their families to be regarded as valued citizens with the same entitlements as non-disabled individuals, including the right to lifelong opportunities for personal growth and full participation in the community.

Phone: (802) 775-1370

Website: <https://www.arcrutlandarea.org/>

Alcoholics Anonymous: Help for a drinking problem.

Phone: (802) 775-0402

Website:

https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1CUc7EfNKeiZG_hrKLxsvF-FfGKmZM56t_pajXU8DjAw/edit#gid=0

American Academy of Pediatrics/Health Children: This website provides parents and professionals with information about child development, health, safety and family in all stages of childhood. The website also provides information on media use, safety, and controls.

Website: <https://www.healthychildren.org/English/Pages/default.aspx>

American Occupational Therapy Association: A resource to learn about occupational therapy for children and youth.

Phone: 1-800-SAY-AOTA

Website:

<https://www.aota.org/About-Occupational-Therapy/Patients-Clients/ChildrenAndYouth.aspx>

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association: Resources for understanding communication and communication disorders.

Phone: 800-638-8255

Website: <https://www.asha.org/public>

Autism Family Group: The Rutland Autism Family Group (RAFG) strives to raise awareness and acceptance of autism, provide opportunities for our children to have typical childhood experiences, create a culture of support for families living with autism, and work with government and community agencies to ensure adequate services for individuals with autism and their families.

Website: <https://www.rafg.org/>

Autism Resources at Vermont Family Network: Provides resources for families impacted by Autism.

Phone: (802)876-5315

Website: <https://www.vermontfamilynetwork.org/what-we-do/resources/topics/autism/>

Autism Society: Provides support to individuals and families impacted by autism.

Phone: 1-800-328-8476

Website: <https://www.autism-society.org/>

Boys and Girls Club of Rutland County: The Boys and Girls Club's programs and services promote and enhance the development of children by instilling a sense of competence, usefulness, belonging and influence. Boys & Girls Clubs are a safe place to learn and grow.

Phone: 802-747-4944

Website: <https://www.rutlandbgclub.org/>

Brain Injury Association of Vermont: Support group and resources for individuals with brain injuries.

Phone: (802) 244-6850

Website: <https://biavt.org/>

BROC Community Action: Their mission is: "Providing hope, opportunity, and a path forward out of crisis or poverty, so our neighbors and communities thrive." Services provided include: housing/homelessness, rental housing, fuel and energy assistance, and food and nutrition resources (Food Shelf, 3 Squares, Farm to Family).

Phone: 802-775-0878

Website: <https://www.broc.org/>

Building Bright Futures: Monitors Vermont's early care, health, and education systems

Phone: 802-876-5010

Website: <https://buildingbrightfutures.org/>

Camp Thorpe: Camping experiences are provided to children and adults with a variety of physical and developmental needs. Although the program has expanded and changed through the years, Walter Thorpe's purpose is perpetuated through positive, successful camping experiences for children and adults in a fun, happy, stress-free environment.

Phone: (802) 247-6611

Website: <https://www.campthorpe.org/>

Care Net Pregnancy Center: Care Net gives free pregnancy testing, confidential services, information and support.

Phone: 802-775-5611

Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning: Offers practical strategies for Teachers/Caregivers.

Phone: 615-322-8150

Website: <http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/resources/strategies.html>

Child Care Support Services: Child Care Support Services of Rutland County (CCSS) provides services and information that helps improve the lives of families, children and the people who seek to care for them. CCSS staff are available to assist with matters related to finding and paying for quality child care, specialized child care, starting a child care program, or education and information related to child care. Funded by grants from the Vermont State Child Development Division and the Federal Child Care & Development Fund, CCSS:

Phone: 802-773-4365

Website: <http://www.vacvt.org/5193-2/>

Child Development Clinic: For children (generally under age 8) who may have a developmental delay or disability. They provide developmental evaluation services, follow-up and referral to community services.

Phone: 802-863-7338

Website:

<https://www.healthvermont.gov/children-youth-families/children-special-health-needs/child-development-clinic>

Child First Advocacy Center: Assists victims and their families in the discovery, intervention, treatment, and prevention of child sexual abuse.

Phone: 802-747-0200

Website: <https://www.childfirstvermont.org/>

Children's Disabilities Information: articles and resources for parents of children with disabilities and special needs

Website: <https://childrensdisabilities.info/>

Children's Integrated Services at Parent Child Center: CIS offers early intervention, family support, and prevention services that help ensure the healthy development and well-being of children, pre-birth to age 5. Services are available at low or no cost to families.

Phone: (802)775-9711

Website:

<https://rcpcc.org/our-programs/early-intervention-child-development-and-family-support/>

Community Care Network/Rutland Mental Health Services/Rutland Community

Programs: Behavioral Health

The Community Access Program (CAP) offers an array of person-centered support to children and adults with developmental disabilities and their families.

Phone: 802-775-2381

Website: <https://www.rmhsccn.org/index>

Community College of Vermont: 12 locations and online learning options to access degree and certificate programs, workforce, secondary and continuing education opportunities, and academic and veterans support services.

Phone: 800-228-6686

Website: <https://ccv.edu/>

Community Dental Rutland: Community Health serves all patients regardless of income or insurance status. Discounts for essential services provided by Community Health are offered on a sliding fee scale basis adjusted for family size and income.

Phone: 802-774-5050

Website: <https://www.cherr.org/location/cherr-community-dental/>

Community High School of Vermont: Offers accredited high school education and providing risk-reducing interventions within the Vermont Department of Corrections to decrease recidivism.

Phone: 802-241-0055

Website: <https://www.chsvt.org/>

Crotched Mountain: Day and residential education programs at a school in Greenfield, NH and autism services for young children at Ready Set Connect.

Phone: 603-547-3311

Website: <https://crotchedmountain.org/>

David's House: Provides a home-away-from-home and support for families with children receiving treatment through the Children's Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center.

Phone: 603-643-2298

Website: <https://davids-house.org/>

Easter Seals: Provides services, education, outreach, and advocacy so that people living with autism and other disabilities can live, learn, work, and play in our communities.

Phone: 802-622-3230

Website: <https://www.easterseals.com/vt/>

Epilepsy Foundation of Vermont:

Phone: 775-1686

Website: <https://epilepsyvt.org/>

Family and Children Support Services Family and Children support services help with questions and struggles regarding the family and the children within the family.

88 Park Street

Rutland, VT 05701

Phone: 802-773-4365

Family Mediators: Center with counselors helping families mediate conflicts and work through problem resolution.

Phone: (802) 773-3410

Website: <https://familymediatorsvermont.com/>

Family Tree Access Centers, Inc: Supervised visitation center

Phone: 802-775-0068

Goodwill Retail Store: Thrift store at 230 N. Main St. in Rutland.

Phone: 802-772-4383

Green Mountain Care- Dr. Dynasaur: Dr. Dynasaur is low-cost or free health coverage for children, teenagers under age 19 and pregnant women. To find out if you are eligible and apply for coverage, go to Vermont Health Connect.

Phone: 1-800-250-8427

Website: <https://www.greenmountaincare.org/health-plans/dr-dynasaur>

Hireability (formally) Vermont Vocational Rehabilitation: When disability gets in the way of productive work, that's when VocRehab Vermont steps in. We provide a wide range of services and support to help you get to work, and to help your employer keep you there. Rutland Office available.

Phone: (802) 786-5866

Website: <https://vocrehab.vermont.gov/>

Homeless Prevention Center: Works to secure and retain housing to individuals and families in crisis.

Phone: 802-775-9286

Website: <https://www.hpcvt.org/>

Institute for Humane Education: Offers graduate programs, training, and resources for teachers and changemakers looking to create a more just, humane, and sustainable future by educating about the interconnected issues of human rights, environmental sustainability, and animal protection and building a society of solutionaries.

Website: <https://humaneeducation.org/>

Kids on the Move/VNA and Hospice Association of the Southwest Region: Pediatric therapy and nursing services.

Phone: 775-0568

Website: www.vermontvisitingnurses.org

Kids VT: list of family-friendly events, activities, camps and classes

Website: <https://www.kidsvt.com/>

Maple Leaf Clinic: Maple Leaf Clinic, P.C. founded by Dr. Dean Mooney, provides a wide variety of services to the community including neuropsychological, educational, and psychological evaluations of children, adolescents and adults. Psychotherapy for people of all ages is also available. We also provide social skills development for all ages, cognitive rehabilitation for brain damage using the REHABIT program, educational or clinical consultation.

Phone: 802-446-3577

Website: <https://www.mapleleafclinic.com/>

Mentor Connector: Mentor Connector recruits and trains adults to be mentors for kids in Rutland County, and connects children to mentors to foster positive relationships. They also have counseling services, and Family mentorship programs.

Phone- 802-775-3434

Website- <https://www.mentorconnector.com/>

Narcotics Anonymous: Help for drug addiction

Phone: 800-407-7195

Website: <https://www.narcotics.com/na-meetings/vermont/rutland/>

National Association of Parents with Children in Special Education: A resource for parents to find information to be their child's best advocate.

Phone: 800-754-4421

Website: <https://www.napcse.org/>

National Center for Learning Disabilities: Working to create a society in which every individual possesses the academic, social, and emotional skills needed to succeed at school, work, and life.

Phone: 301-966-2234

Website: <https://ncld.org/>

National Center for Pyramid Model Innovations: The goals of NCPMI are to assist states and programs in their implementation of sustainable systems for the implementation of the Pyramid Model for Supporting Social Emotional Competence in Infants and Young Children (Pyramid Model) within early intervention and early education programs with a focus on promoting the social, emotional, and behavioral outcomes of young children birth to five, reducing the use of inappropriate discipline practices, promoting family engagement, using data for decision-making, integrating early childhood and infant mental health consultation and fostering inclusion.

Website: <https://challengingbehavior.cbcs.usf.edu/index.html>

National Council on Independent Living: NCIL advances independent living and the rights of people with disabilities. NCIL envisions a world in which people with disabilities are valued equally and participate fully.

Phone: 202-207-0341

Website: <https://ncil.org/>

National Down Syndrome Society: NDSS supports and advocates for the Down syndrome community by focusing on resources and support, policy and advocacy, and community engagement.

Phone: 800-221-4602

Website: <https://www.ndss.org/>

NeighborWorks of Western Vermont: Promotes safe, efficient and stable housing, and community projects through education, technical assistance, and financial services. NWWVT helps individuals develop self-reliance through education, counseling, technical, and financial services.

Phone: 802-438-2303

Website: <https://www.nwwvt.org/>

Newstory Center: Counseling, legal and social service advocacy, emergency shelter and crisis counseling for victims of domestic violence

Phone: 802-775-3232

Website: <https://www.nscvt.org/>

Vermont Deaf and Hard of Hearing Program: Special education consulting agency, connecting children and schools with effective strategies to address language delays and hearing loss

Phone: \(802\) 858-2323858-2323)

Website: admin@deafvermont.com

Northlands Job Corps Center: Residential Career Training program

Phone: 802-877-2922

Website: <http://northlands.jobcorps.gov/>

Open Door Mission: Thrift store at 31 Park St. in Rutland.

Phone: 802-775-5661

Parenting Assistance Line: The Parenting Assistance Line (PAL) is for anyone who wants information and support in becoming a more confident parent. PAL can provide helpful assistance to moms, dads, grandparents, caregivers, and anyone who wants to nurture a happy, healthy family! Call or text or Chat online with parenting experts or browse the wealth of parenting resources found on our website.

Phone: 866-962-3030

Website: <https://pal.ua.edu/>

Parenting Counts: Resources to support parents and caregivers in raising socially and emotionally healthy children.

Website: <https://www.parentingcounts.org/>

Parents Assistance Line: Parenting support, resources, and referrals

Phone: 1-800-CHILDREN

Pine Hill Park: Trail system in Rutland city for mountain biking, trail running, hiking, walking, snowshoeing, and geocaching.

Website- <https://pinehillpark.org/>

Planned Parenthood: Family Planning, support, health services

Phone: (802) 775-2333

Website:

<https://www.plannedparenthood.org/health-center/vermont/rutland/05701/rutland-health-center-4229-91770>

Reach Up: Reach Up helps families with children by providing cash assistance for basic needs and services that support work and self-sufficiency

Phone: 800-479-6151

Website: <https://dcf.vermont.gov/>

Reading Rockets: A national multimedia project that offers a wealth of research-based reading strategies, lessons, and activities, designed to help young children learn how to read and read better. The resources assist parents, teachers, and other educators in helping struggling readers build fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension skills.

Website: <https://www.readingrockets.org/>

Recovery House, Serenity House and Grace House: Alcohol and opioid related detoxification services and treatment for substance use disorder.

Phone: 802-446-2640

Website: <https://www.recoveryhousevt.org/>

Ronald McDonald House Charities: A “home away from home” for families with seriously ill children seeking treatment at the University of Vermont Children’s Hospital.

Phone: 802-862-4943

Website: <https://www.rmhcvt.org/>

RSVP and The Volunteer Center: RSVP and The Volunteer Center is an “Invitation to Serve” program for people who want to make a difference, get involved and enjoy the experience of volunteering. We serve individuals and organizations in Rutland and Addison Counties. Programs such as Operation Dolls and More, RSVP Rutland County Reads & RSVP After School Buddies

Phone: 802-775-8220

Website: <https://www.volunteersinvt.org/>

Rutland Community Cupboard: Food Shelf.

Phone: 802-747-6119

Website: <https://www.rutlandcommunitycupboard.org/>

Rutland County ARC: Their mission is “to advocate for the right of individuals with developmental disabilities and their families to be regarded as valued citizens with the same entitlements as non-disabled individuals, including the right to lifelong opportunities for personal growth and full participation in the community.”

Phone: 802-775-1370

Website: <https://www.arcrutlandarea.org/>

Rutland County Head Start: Early childhood program

Phone: 802-775-8225

Website: <https://www.rchscn.org/>

Rutland County Parent Child Center: Early childhood program

Phone: (802) 775-9711

Website: <https://rcpcc.org/>

Rutland County Restorative Justice Center:

Phone: (802) 775-2479

Website: <https://rutlandrestorativejustice.org/>

Rutland Free Clinic (Formally Park St. Healthshare): A free health clinic for uninsured and underinsured adult Vermonters. Medical and Dental Care. No emergency services available.

Phone: 802-775-1360

Website: https://www.chcrr.org/community_resource/rutland-free-clinic/

Rutland Free Library: A public library with books, DVDs, periodicals, databases, computers, audio- & e-books & WiFi. Also offers programs for children, and different events and activities. If you are a member, they also have free passes to the following museums and parks. Located at 10 Court St. in Rutland.

Phone: 802-773-1860

Website: <https://rutlandfree.org/>

Rutland Housing Authority: The RHA is dedicated to building healthy, safe, vibrant neighborhoods by creating and offering service-enriched housing opportunities.

Phone: 802-775-2926

Website: <https://www.rhvt.org/>

Rutland Recreation and Parks Department: Providing activities for all ages in Rutland County. Activities include team sports, individualized sports, creative arts programs, hunter safety programs, community events, aquatics, ice skating, vacation and summer camps, E-bike lending, and community garden plots.

Phone: 802-773-1822

Website: <https://www.rutlandrec.com/>

Rutland Regional Medical Center: Healthcare services as well as classes and support groups such as Al-Anon/Alateen, Say it Straight (addresses high risk and destructive behaviors and promotes wellness in young people ages 11-19).

Phone: 802-775-7111

Website: <https://www.rrmc.org/>

Shriners Hospital for Children: Their mission is to Provide the highest quality care to children with neuromusculoskeletal conditions, burn injuries and other special healthcare needs within a compassionate, family-centered and collaborative care environment.

Phone: 800-237-5055

Website: <https://www.shrinershospitalsforchildren.org/shc>

Silver Towers Camp: An overnight retreat for those with mental and physical challenges, the camp demands more focused attention than others, and thus has a high ratio of counselors to campers to accommodate the special needs of the campers.

Phone: 802-775-9756

Website: <https://www.vtelks.org/programs/silver-towers/>

Special Olympics Vermont: Special Olympics Vermont is part of a global movement that works year-round to foster inclusion and acceptance of people with intellectual disabilities by using the power of sport to showcase their gifts and abilities.

Phone: (802) 863-5222

Website: <https://www.specialolympicsvermont.org/>

Spina Bifida Association of Greater New England: This corporation works to support, connect, and empower individuals and families living in New England with Spina Bifida.

Phone: 888-479-1900

Website: <https://sbagreaterne.org/>

Spruce Mountain Inn: In Plainfield Vermont, Residential program that has been providing compassionate, client-driven residential treatment to young adults age 18-28 experiencing difficulty managing life, and dealing with mental health challenges.

Phone: (802) 454-8353

Website: <https://sprucemountaininn.com/>

Stafford Technical Center: Workforce development and continuing education.

Phone: 802-770-1033

Website: <https://staffordonline.org/>

The Compassionate Friends: Supporting family after a child dies.

Phone: 802-446-2278

Website: <https://www.compassionatefriends.org/chapter/tcf-rutland-region-chapter/>

The Family Hope Center: Their mission is to service families of children with neurodevelopmental disorders around the world by educating and guiding parents to take a primary and active role in their children's development.

Phone: 610-397-1737

Website: <https://familyhopecenter.com/>

The Mentor Connector: Provides individual, group, and family mentoring.

Phone: 802-775-3434

Website: <https://www.mentorconnector.com/>

The Salvation Army:

Phone: (802)775-5150

Website: <https://nne.salvationarmy.org/rutland>

United Way of Rutland County: Unite Rutland County residents and resources to facilitate lasting positive change based on community needs.

Phone: 802-773-7477

Website: <https://www.uwrutlandcounty.org/>

University of Vermont Extension: Provide and facilitate research, education, and outreach such as 4-H, nutrition and food safety, and teach leadership and communication skills.

Phone: 802-773-3349

Website: <https://www.uvm.edu/extension>

Valley Vista: Addiction treatment programs

Phone: 802-222-5201

Website: <https://vvista.net/>

Vermont Achievement Center: Through flexible, diverse and responsive programs, VAC provides a foundation of life skills to prepare individuals to reach their full potential as contributing members of society. Programs offered include: Mitchell Therapy Pool (indoor, heated pool for adults and children, offers swim lessons and exercise classes, as well as open swim times), Child Care Support Services (referrals for childcare, eligibility for state financial assistance "subsidy"), Early Childhood Education and Care, and the Kaleidoscope Summer Program, Sheldon Academy (a special education program for grades K-8), the Autism Spectrum Disorder Program

Phone: 802-775-2395

Website: <http://www.vacvt.org/>

Vermont Adaptive Ski & Sports: Vermont Adaptive staff and trained volunteers offer programs to individuals and groups of all ages with any disability, seven days a week throughout the year. They are a nationally recognized organization that empowers people of all abilities through inclusive sports and recreational programming regardless of ability to pay. They work with people of all ages with cognitive, developmental, physical, and emotional disabilities.

Phone: (802) 786-4991

Website: <https://www.vermontadaptive.org/>

Vermont Adult Learning: The mission is to create an innovative, inclusive, and equitable learning environment that provides personalized opportunities for education and career development for Vermont residents by building relationships, strengthening communities, and fostering life-long learning.

Phone: 802-775-0617

Website: <https://vtadulthoodlearning.org/>

Vermont Agency of Education/Educational Surrogate Parent Program: The federal law, Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (IDEIA), and the State Board of Education Rules for Special Education ensure that the educational rights of infants, toddlers and students are represented in the special education process. Parental involvement in planning a child's special education program is required by both federal and state regulations. A Vermont Educational Surrogate Parent Program (VESPP) volunteer fills the parental role in the special education process and represents students who are in state custody or whose parents are not known or cannot be located or unaccompanied homeless youth.

Phone: 802-828-1130

Website:

<https://education.vermont.gov/student-support/special-education/laws-and-regulations/educational-surrogate-parent-program>

Vermont Assistive Technology Program: The AT Exchange is a free site for Vermonters to exchange gently used durable medical equipment.

Phone: 800-750-6355

Website: <https://vt.at4all.com/>

Vermont Cares: Vermont CARES works for and with Vermonters affected by HIV/AIDS to promote well being through a continuum of prevention, support, and advocacy services

Phone: 802-775-5884

Website: <https://vtcares.org/about/rutland/>

Vermont Center for Independent Living: Helps promote the dignity, independence and civil rights of Vermonters with disabilities. Like other independent living centers across the country,

VCIL is committed to: services for all disabilities; promotion of active citizenship; and working with others to create services that support free-choice and full participation in community life.

Phone: (802) 229-0501

Website: <https://vcil.org/>

Vermont Deaf and Hard of Hearing Program (NineEast Network): We are committed to ensuring that children with hearing loss and children with developmental speech and language disorders have all the access to communication that they will need to grow, learn, and thrive in today's communication-driven world.

Phone: (802) 229-0100

Website: <https://www.9east.net/>

Vermont Department of Children and Families/Economic Services Division: 3Squares, Essential Person, Fuel Assistance, and ReachUp

Phone: 800-479-6151

Website: <https://dcf.vermont.gov/esd>

Vermont Department of Children and Families/Office of Child Support:

Phone: 1-800-786-3214

Website: <https://dcf.vermont.gov/ocs>

Vermont Department of Health: Alcohol and drug treatment program guide

https://www.healthvermont.gov/sites/default/files/documents/pdf/ADAP_Treatment%20Resource%20Guide%20Directory%20Rutland.pdf

Vermont Department of Health: Children with Special Health Needs includes a team of social workers, nurses, and specialty providers who provide services and supports based on the child's and family's needs. This is a free public health program.

Phone: 800-660-4427

Website: <https://www.healthvermont.gov/family/special-health-needs>

Vermont Department of Health: Diabetes Program. The goal is to improve the health of Vermonters by preventing and managing type 2 diabetes and heart disease. A focus of our work is using proven methods to support Vermonters who are at the greatest risk of these conditions.

Phone: 802-863-7330

Website: <https://www.healthvermont.gov/wellness/diabetes/about-diabetes-program>

Vermont Department of Health- Oral Health: Dental health is important for overall health. For example, people who have diabetes are at greater risk for dental disease, and having dental disease makes it more difficult to control blood sugar levels. Poor dental health has also been linked to heart disease and stroke as well.

Phone: 802-863-7330

Website: <https://www.healthvermont.gov/wellness/oral-health>

Vermont Department of Labor: Job search assistance, unemployment insurance

Phone: 802-828-4000

Website: <https://labor.vermont.gov/>

Vermont Family Network: Empowers parents, families, and children and adults who have special needs to be effective advocates for their health, education and well-being; provides information, support, and advocacy; and promotes family-centered policies and practices.

Phone: 800-800-4005

Website: <https://www.vermontfamilynetwork.org/>

Vermont Federation of Families for Children’s Mental Health: Federation to support families and children where a child or youth, age 0-22, is experiencing or at risk to experience emotional, behavioral, or mental health challenges. The Federation is committed to: Providing families with peer support and information in order to make informed decisions, empowering families, youth and young adults to navigate service and support systems, advocating for accessible, flexible and quality family centered and driven services on a local, state and national level. The Federation collaborates with schools, communities, governmental, and private agencies, and other advocacy organizations to achieve these ends.

Phone: 802-876-7021

Website: <https://www.vffcmh.org/>

Vermont Legal Aid: Provides civil legal services for those living in poverty, with a disability, or over age 60. We also serve anyone who is discriminated against in housing decisions and all who face challenges related to health care insurance or services.

Phone: 800-889-2047

Website: <https://www.vtlegalaid.org/>

Vermont State Parks: Swimming, Camping, Hiking Etc. Events and summer programs for kids.

Website: <https://vtstateparks.com/>

Vermont State University at Castleton- pool & gym

Phone: (802) 468-1426

Website: <https://www.castleton.edu/community/fitness-center/castleton-aquatics/>

Visiting Nurse Association (VNA) and Hospice Association of the Southwest Region:

VNAHSR provides services when in-home care is needed – or preferred. Our programs span a lifetime — from prenatal care to care for young families to rehabilitation, long-term care, adult day services and end-of-life care. We bring advanced care to our patients where they're most comfortable and can heal the fastest— in the home. We are your local, non-profit VNA and Hospice, committed to helping anyone who needs our assistance. We serve patients, their caregivers and families around Rutland and Bennington Counties.

Phone: (802)-775-0568

Website: <https://www.vermontvisitingnurses.org/>

Voices for Vermont's Children: Promotes public policy that enhances the lives of children and youth in Vermont.

Phone: 802-229-6377

Website: <https://www.voicesforvtkids.org/who-we-are>

WIC: Supplemental nutrition program for Women, Infants, and Children under 5.

Phone: 1-800-649-4357

Website: <https://www.healthvermont.gov/family/wic>

Wonderfeet Kids' Museum: Interactive exhibits & events dedicated to the lifetime love of learning & discovery for children. Free playgroup, meet-up and support groups offered as well. Located at 11 Center St. in Rutland.

Phone: (802) 282-2678

Website: <https://wonderfeetkidsmuseum.org/>