FORT MILL SCHOOL DISTRICT ANNOUNCES TEACHER AND SUPPORT STAFF EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

FORT MILL, SC — At the Engaged 2 Learn conference meeting held Tuesday, August 15, the district announced the selection of the 2023-2024 District Teacher of the Year and Support Staff Employee of the Year.

Lindsay Weaver, English Language Arts Teacher at Gold Hill Middle School was selected as the 23-24 District Teacher of the Year. Ms. Weaver attended the University of South Carolina, where she received a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education and a Master in Library and Information Science. She also earned a Gifted and Talented Endorsement from Converse College. In addition to teaching sixth grade ELA, Ms. Weaver is a member of the American Association of Libraries and the South Carolina Association of School Librarians. She also serves as the English Language Arts Department Chair and a mentor for Teacher Cadets and Induction teachers.

Cindy Ormseth, a Computer Tech Engineer at the District Office, was selected as the 2023–2024 District Support Staff Employee of the Year. Her 20-year career in the district began with an opportunity she received while volunteering at her son’s school. She has previously served as a Tech Assistant at the school level and a Tech Support Specialist at the district office. Ms. Ormseth supports our schools every day by responding to technical issues throughout the district to allow teachers to more effectively educate their students.

“We are excited to present these awards to both Ms. Weaver and Ms. Ormseth,” said Superintendent Chuck Epps. “Both Ms. Weaver and Ms. Ormseth are exceptional members of the Fort Mill School District family. They are representative of all of the talented teachers and staff members we have in our schools, and we are excited to have them represent us in the coming year.”
