

WASHINGTON ACADEMY

ATHLETIC HANDBOOK

1. Responsibilities to yourself: The most important of these responsibilities is to broaden your strength of character. You owe it to yourself to get the greatest possible benefits from your High school

2. Responsibilities to your school: Another responsibility that you assume as a participant is to your school. Your school cannot build or maintain a position as an outstanding school unless you do your best in whatever activity you wish to engage. By participating in interscholastic competition to the maximum of your ability, you are contributing to the reputation of your school.

You assume a leadership role if you are on an interscholastic team. The student body and citizens of the community know you. You are on stage with the spotlight on you. The student body, the local community and other communities judge our school by your conduct and attitudes, both in and out of school. Because of your leadership role, you can contribute greatly to school spirit and community pride. Make your school and your community proud of your faithful exemplification of these ideals.

3. Responsibilities to others: As a team member you bear a heavy responsibility to your home. You should never give your family anything to be ashamed of. When you know in your heart that you have lived up to all of the training rules that you have practiced to the best of your ability everyday and that you have played the game "all out," you can maintain your self-respect. Your family can be justly proud of you and your effort.

Also remember that younger students are watching you and they will copy you in many ways: Do not do anything to let them down. Always set good examples for them.

1. To work with others – A person must develop self-discipline, respect for authority, and the spirit of hard work and sacrifice. The team and its objectives must be placed higher than personal desires.
2. To be successful – Our society is very competitive. We do not always win, but we succeed when we continually strive to do our best. You can learn to accept defeat only by striving to win with earnest dedication. Develop a desire to excel.
3. To develop sportsmanship – To accept any defeat like a true sportsman involves knowing we have done our best. We must learn to treat others the way we would have them treat us. We need to develop desirable social traits, including emotional control, honesty, cooperation and dependability.
4. To improve – Continual improvement is essential to good citizenship. As a participant, you must establish goals and you must continually try to reach those goals. Try to better program and will not be tolerated. Due to the serious nature of violations of the Ethics Rule, the appropriate coach, the athletic director, and the principal shall meet and determine the penalty according to the degree of the infraction. The penalty may range from extra work and/or suspension to forfeiture of athletic participation.

B. Training Rules and Regulations

We cannot compromise participation in interscholastic activities with substance abuse. The student-athlete who uses tobacco, alcohol, illegal drugs, or any type of mood altering substance found in legal over-the-counter products, jeopardizes team morale, team reputation, and team success and does physical harm to himself/herself. Students have to decide for themselves whether or not they want to participate in our interscholastic program. If you wish to participate, you must make a commitment. A big part of this commitment is following a simple set of training rules which the school system believes to be fair.

1. Use of Tobacco – Research emphasizes that the use of tobacco is physically harmful to young adults. The harm done by this is not only a health problem. The community follows the progress of young competitors, and any deviation from accepted training rules marks one as unwilling to pay the price of competition and commitment. If one squad member breaks the rule, the whole team's reputation is damaged. This rule means no use of tobacco all year, in or out of season.
2. Use of Alcoholic Beverages – There is no way to justify a competitor's use of alcoholic beverages, even though social pressure may be hard to resist. This rule means no use of alcoholic beverages all year, in or out of season.
3. Use of Illegal Drugs or Mood Altering Substances – Simply stated, drug abuse will not be tolerated. The use or misuse of drugs or chemicals is a social problem. Students with a strong sense of purpose have no need for mood modifiers. The rule for drugs/chemical abuse is in effect all year, in or out of season.

C. Penalties for Violation of Training Rules

1. Tobacco Violations:

1st offense: Forfeiture of playing in 20% of the scheduled regular season contests and all preseason scrimmages and tournaments. Students must attend a counseling program set up through Washington Academy.

2nd offense: Athlete will be suspended from the team for the remainder of the season.

3rd offense: Athlete is suspended for the remainder of the current season and the sports season after that.

4th offense: Exclusion from all athletic activities for the remainder of their high school career.

2. Drugs/Alcohol Violations:

If a student quits a sport, that student cannot begin a new sport until the entire season of the sport in which he/she is currently involved is completed.

C. Equipment

School equipment issued to the student/athlete is the student's responsibility. Loss of any equipment is the athlete's financial obligation, and failing to meet the obligation can result in the denial of participation in our program. A student will not be allowed to tryout or participate in a sport until all school-issued equipment has been turned in or replaced at student expense.

D. Conflicts in Extracurricular Activities

An individual student who attempts to participate in several extracurricular activities will, undoubtedly, be in a position of a conflict of obligations.

The athletic department recognizes that each student should have the opportunity for a broad range of experiences in the area of extra-curricular activities, and to this end, will attempt to schedule events in a manner to minimize conflicts.

1. Students have a responsibility to do everything they can to avoid continuous conflicts. This would include being cautious about belonging to too many activities where conflicts are bound to happen. It also means notifying the faculty sponsors/coaches involved immediately when a conflict does arise.
2. When a conflict does arise, the sponsors/coaches will work out a solution so the student does not get caught in the middle. If a solution cannot be found, the principal will make the decision based on the following:
 - A. The relative importance of each event to the school.
 - B. The importance of each event to the student.
 - C. The relative contribution the student can make.
 - D. How long each event has been scheduled.
 - E. The opinion of the parents.

Once the decision has been made and the student has followed that decision, he/she will not be penalized in any way by either sponsor/coach. If it becomes obvious that a student cannot fulfill the obligation of a school activity, he/she should withdraw from that activity.

E. Attendance

Students marked absent over half of the school day will not be able to play in a contest or practice on that date. (There are extenuating circumstances that will allow the student to participate in this situation) Students absent from school on the day prior to a non-school day will be eligible to participate the day after the absence.

F. In-School and Out-of-School Suspension

Students will not be allowed to participate until they have served their suspension. There will be no adjustments made to suspension days to allow a student to participate in any activities.

Penalties for In-School and Out-of-School Suspensions will be determined by the

B. Temporary Denial/Permanent Denial of Participation

1. Temporary denial is defined as any suspension less than a permanent denial of participation.
2. When a coach denies participation of a student in an activity group, the student must be informed of the intended action. It is then the responsibility of the coach to discuss the situation with the student and then determine whether or not to deny the student participation.

C. Permanent Denial of Participation

1. If a student is to be permanently denied participation in an activity, the coach shall notify the student after discussing the situation with the athletic director.

Academic Responsibilities

The pursuit of athletic excellence is the primary responsibility of the student athlete. If an athlete does not perform well in the classroom, then that athlete will be put on probation and not be allowed to practice or participate in athletic contests until the requirements to be reinstated are fulfilled. The following paragraphs will detail our policy.

1. Athletes will be placed on probation if they are not passing 3 subjects at progress report time or at the end of a quarter. Probation means athletes are restricted from practices and participating in athletic contests for 2 weeks.
2. At the end of 2 weeks, the athlete's grades are reviewed. If the athlete is not passing 3 subjects, the athlete will be reinstated to the team.
3. If the athlete is still not passing 3 subjects, the athlete will be on probation for a second 2 weeks probationary period.
4. If the athlete is still not passing after the third probationary session; then the athlete is suspended for the remainder of the season.
5. The fourth quarter grades from the previous year will be reviewed to verify if a student can try out for a team the following year in the fall sports season. If a student is not passing 3 subjects at the end of the fourth quarter, that student will not be allowed to try out during the fall season the next year.
6. During the winter sports season the second quarter grades will be the deciding factor in determining athletic eligibility once the season is in progress. The mid-year exam and semester grade will not be used to consider eligibility.
7. A student who misses a part or all of a day of an extracurricular contest or the day after the contest will be ineligible for the next scheduled contest unless a written excuse is given to the Athletic Director. This also applies to practice sessions.
