

HORTICULTURE SCIENCE

Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources

Career Pathway

College Ready Whether you are looking for a Bachelor’s, Master’s, or Associate’s degree, there are options.

- Middle Tennessee State University – Plant and Soil Science
- Tennessee State University – Environmental Sciences, Plant and Soil Science
- Tennessee Tech – Agronomy, Horticulture, Nursery and Landscape Management, Turfgrass Management
- University of Tennessee – Horticulture Science, Landscape Design, Turfgrass Science and Management, Plant Genetics
- Nashville State Community College – Production Horticulture

Career Opportunities

The Horticulture or Plant Science industry is a continuously growing industry. Careers within Horticulture range from Nursery Greenhouse Worker to Natural Science Manager. Some of the most needed areas are within the Soil and Plant Sciences followed closely by Turfgrass Management. Turf Grass is used in many ways whether it be a lawn or on a sports field and both require continuous maintenance. Pay within Horticulture Science Careers range from $30,000-$110,000 per year.