Tualatin Together

This year, we have collectively experienced circumstances without precedent in our lifetimes. As the world continues to face a global pandemic, we know that COVID-19 is not the only deflating agent running rampant through our communities. Continuous change with no resources has led to countless numbers of our youth who are deflated and in need of coping skills.

At Tualatin Together, we believe that inflating our youth with strategies for them to bounce back better and stronger is our priority in helping them achieve their full potential. We need your help to learn more about how our youth access information, are currently coping, and together connect and plan how we will support our youth as they navigate today, tomorrow, and beyond.

Please fill out this 3-5 minute survey and consider attending our 7th Annual Community Champions Event on January 21, 2021, from 11:45 AM - 1:00 PM (Via Zoom) by registering today. Links to the survey can be found here.
