

Advanced Placement Vs. Dual Enrollment

2020-2021

AP COURSE OFFERINGS AT ATHENS HIGH SCHOOL

- CALCULUS
- STATISTICS
- COMPUTER SCIENCE
- ENGLISH LITERATURE (12TH)
- ENGLISH LANGUAGE (11TH)
- US HISTORY
- GOVERNMENT
- MACROECONOMICS
- BIOLOGY
- CHEMISTRY
- ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE
- SPANISH LANGUAGE
- PSYCHOLOGY
- STUDIO ART

DUAL ENROLLMENT OFFERED THROUGH

- Calhoun Community College (on campus or online except ENG 101/102 & HIS 202 on AHS campus)
- University of Alabama Early College (online)
- Auburn University First (NEW, online)

	ADVANCED PLACEMENT	DUAL ENROLLMENT
Curriculum based on	Standard AP course	College course
School level of course	High school (advanced)	College
Credit earned based on	AP exam score	Passing course
Do colleges accept credit?	Varies by school, usually a score of 3 or higher is required (scores range from 1-5)	Varies by school (may be more difficult for out-of-state or private colleges)
Documentation needed for credit?	College Board AP score report	Official college transcript
Is a grade assigned when the credit is transferred (does it affect college GPA)?	No grade or affect on college GPA	Yes for both
No grade or affect on college GPA	1.08 weighted on High School GPA	1.04 weighted on High School GPA
Can my parents see my progress?	Parents can check progress	Parents may or may not be able to check progress (FERPA)
What is the cost?	Exam fee ($94.00 per test unless free or reduced lunch)	College Tuition (Approx. $490-$550 per 3 hour course)