

H. Warren Lyon

Warren began work at the Lamoille County Sheriff's Department in March of 2023. He is a retired Sergeant Major from the US Army Reserves and has faithfully served this country and his local communities in many capacities over the past 38 years. Warren served on Active Duty status with the Army for 7 years as a Military Policeman. Upon transfer to the US Army Reserve, he was employed by the Federal Bureau of Prisons where he served as a Correctional Officer and Special Operations expert in four separate facilities throughout the United States. Warren left the Corrections field after the events of 11 September, 2001 and was hired as a Federal Air Marshal. In this position he was deployed in a semi-covert status on American flagged aircraft throughout the world to deter and defeat possible terrorist attacks. Warren has deployed twice in the Global War on Terrorism, to include a 16 month tour in Iraq in 2006-2007 and was awarded the Bronze Star. Since his retirement in 2017, Warren has been working in the mountains of Belvedere, VT at his family's Maple Sugar operation and worked part time a Smugglers Notch Ski Resort in the Security Department. He has settled in Waterville, Vermont with his wife Kimberly Mann.
