

SHREWSBURY
INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

BANGKOK • RIVERSIDE

SHREWSBURY INSTITUTE

TEACH • LEARN • LEAD

2023 F BISIA

TEACHING COMMUNITY CONFERENCE

Thinking and Talking: making the most of learning opportunities, allowing students to find their voices.

Hosted by Shrewsbury International School, Bangkok, Riverside, join us on 23rd and 24th November 2023 at the Chatrium Riverside for CPD and networking opportunities with all of the FOBISIA network schools, and special guests.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Marcelo Staricoff

is Lecturer in Primary Education (Education) at the University of Sussex. He is the creator of the Joy of Not Knowing (JONK) approach and founder and director of JONK Thinking and Learning.

Honourable Doctor - Stuart Lawrence

has worked as a teacher and coach in schools, football teams, youth engagement programmes and with the Home Office and HMP Belmarsh.

Peps McCreav

is an award-winning teacher educator, designer and author. Peps will feature in a one off online keynote presentation live from the UK.

Mr P ICT

is on a mission to get teachers using technology more effectively in the classroom to have an impact on teaching and learning but also to get teachers working smarter not harder. Mr P will feature in a one off online keynote presentation live from the UK.

CONFERENCE FEE - SGD400/DELEGATE OR SGD350 FOR 3 OR MORE DELEGATES

- Conference, Refreshments & Lunch - Thursday 23rd and Friday 24th November 2023
- Evening reception - Thursday 23rd November 2023
- A signed copy of The Joy of Not Knowing By Marcelo Staricoff FCCT, NPQH, PGCE, PhD, BSc

CONFERENCE
REGISTRATION DEADLINE:
14TH OCTOBER 2023
CONFERENCE
REGISTRATION:

