Title VI

American Indian Education

Eligibility

A 506 Eligibility form needs to be completed by a parent/guardian to acknowledge a student’s American Indian/Alaska Native descent. The federal form generates funds and certifies a student’s eligibility for program services/activities.

Title VI Indian Education serves as the bridge between families and the district, by providing a rich array of programs and services for students, teachers, and parents’ curriculum and instruction that support District staff. We support native parent/family involvement by promoting parent empowerment and advocacy to ensure fair and equitable access to educational services throughout the Salt Lake City School District.
