Message from Principal Norman...

Dear Phoenix,

Welcome to Fall and the end of the first quarter. I appreciate all the hard work that staff and students have put into starting this school year right. I also know that Fall break is one month away, and everyone deserves a well-earned break. Between now and Fall break, families and students need to be aware of the following:

- Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held on October 27th from 3:30 pm - 7:00 pm, and on October 28th from 7:30 am - 7:00 pm. Conferences will be 15 minutes in length and held in person. We will be emailing a booking link with teacher time availability soon. Please watch your email for the communication.
- Odyssey ECCO has built out a robust series of tutoring opportunities to support academic success this school year. We offer in-person tutoring five days a week after school and scheduled online tutoring opportunities. We want students to experience academic success and know that tutoring is essential in making that happen. Students who are undergoing a quarantine can access more tutoring information using this link.
- The School Accountability committee meets on the first Monday of each month from 6:30-7:30 pm, via video conferencing. Our September and October meetings mark some of the best community participation ever! The links to the sessions can be found here on our school calendar.
- Tick Tok challenges continue to cause minor disruptions on the Roy J Wasson Academic Campus. Destruction and vandalism are the common themes we have seen as of late. It takes time, money, and effort to repair the damages. This type of activity is not victimless. We ask that students do not participate in these activities and resist sharing these challenges on social media.

I appreciate your support of Odyssey Early College and Career Options! The second quarter of the first semester looks to be busy with quite a few events and activities. I encourage families and students to monitor PowerSchool, check D2L, and be aware of academic timelines. Community focus on academic success can lead to great things!

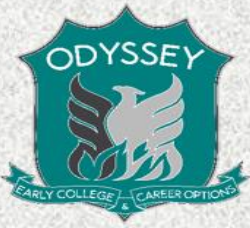

Sincerely,

Sean Norman

BEHIND THE SCENES

Staff Spotlight – Dr. Keith E. Clayton

Daniels Fund Ethics Initiative Collegiate Program welcomes 16 ethics champions in southern Colorado (Garrett Dahms 8/27/21)

Top Row, left to right: Scott Heyler, Keith E. Clayton, Michael Vieregge, Jill Choate

The Daniels Fund Ethics Initiative Collegiate Program at UCCS College of Business recently welcomed 16 faculty and staff members from regional colleges to serve as 2021-22 Ethics Champions.

The ethic champions represent two- and four-year colleges from the Southern Colorado Ethics Consortium (SCEC) and work to expand principled-based ethics education throughout their campus and regional community. Each ethics champion works collaboratively with the DFEI at UCCS to share resources and initiatives with educators throughout southern Colorado.

"We are pleased to welcome the 2021-22 ethics champions from eleven southern Colorado higher education institutions to instill principle-based ethics on their campus," said Tracy Gonzalez-Pardon, director, DFEI at UCCS. "Through the Southern Colorado Ethics Consortium and the ethics champions, DFEI principles were introduced last year to 2,300 students, over 15,000 business/community, and 105 educators."

"The reach of the SCEC expanded in 2020-21 academic year with Odyssey Early College formally joining the consortium," Scott Van Ness said. "The US Air Force Academy also joined the SCEC officially in June, 2020. We're thrilled about the expansion of the program as we work to reach additional students, faculty and staff to bring ethics principles and leadership to institutions across southern Colorado."

The selected champions are:

- Shane Callahan, Philosophy, Adams State
- Natasha Liebig, Philosophy, History, Anthropology, Philosophy, Political Science, Adams State University
- Bruce N. Lundberg, Mathematics, CSU-Pueblo
- Tina Twilleger, Health Science and Human Movement, CSU-Pueblo
- Jill Choate, Education, Fort Lewis College
- Andres "AJ" Arrendondo Jr., Residence and Student Life, Lamar Community College
- Keith E. Clayton, Business, Odyssey Early College and Career Options
- Dillon Martin, Auxiliary Services & Foundation, Otero College
- Carol Kurowski, Business, Pikes Peak Community College
- Jeannie Beth Almanza, Medical Imaging, Pueblo Community College
- Matthew Grable, Pueblo Law Enforcement Academy, Pueblo Community College
- Paul Boone, History, Trinidad State College
- Scott Heyler, Management, United States Air Force Academy
- Jennifer DeBoer, Business Administration, Western Colorado University
- Paula Mann, Accountancy, Western Colorado University
- Michael Vieregge, Business Administration, Western Colorado University

"I want to become a better instructor through more training and understanding of the concept of ethics in education, Jeannie Beth Almanza said. "I will share the ideas with my colleagues to remind us that reflection on teaching and interactions, and using a more ethics-based approach to delivery, will create better student learning outcomes, relationships and contributions to the community."

A nomination of Paula Mann mentioned, "Being somewhat new to academia, Paula brings a fresh perspective and enthusiasm to teaching in the Accounting Department in the School of Business. She is able to share true life experiences with students and demonstrate the true importance that ethics, integrity and leadership play in the environment that they are working towards becoming a part of."
