Baldy View ROP hosted the Community Open House & Career Fair Saturday, October 19th at the Career Training Center. The first event that morning was the grand opening of the new state-of-the-art Logistics Building. Attendees toured the new building and had the opportunity to operate the forklifting simulator. Tours also included Licensed Vocational Nursing, Medical Assistant, and Registered Dental Assistant Programs. The event hosted over 30 vendors and 60 ROP courses! There were also special performances from Contemporary Dance, Law Enforcement Occupations, and Firefighter Technology courses. We would like to thank all the student volunteers, instructors, staff, and sponsors who contributed in making this a successful event!

Transportation Distribution

Logistics Field Trip

Pictured above are students from the Transportation Distribution Logistics class on a field trip at Ventura Foods Manufacturing and Distribution Center. Students were taken through the process of how individual containers are packaged and delivered to local eateries. Their trip began with safety, protocol, and dress code, then they toured the facility. Cesar Naranjo states, "It was interesting to know how everything works in a manufacturing and distribution center." While touring the facility, student Jesse Montes stated, "The teamwork was amazing and everyone takes care of each other like family." This was an eye-opening experience for the students! Thank you to Ventura Foods and Logistics Instructor, Kermit Boyd.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE STUDENTS

COMPUTER PROGRAMMING & GAME DESIGN

Andrew Teow works on a computer programming project at the Career Training Center

Andrew Teow is a 10th grade Chino Hills High School student from Chino Valley Unified School District. Andrew is currently enrolled in the Computer Programming and Game Design class at the Career Training Center. Andrew describes his class as an introduction course in learning the basics of computer programming, writing code, and how to design a well-functioning game including level and character design. Andrew states that he was initially interested in the course because he wanted to learn how to program. "The most important skill I have learned as an ROP student is how to use my time more productively when programming." Andrew appreciates ROP for helping him be more involved in school and interactive outside of school. "I want to go into the programming or science field," he shared. Andrew is excited to be amongst his classmates learning the rigor of computer programming and gaming. "ROP teaches you skills that you would use in jobs and in the real world."

COMPUTER PROGRAMMING & GAME DESIGN

Adrian Clayton in his class working on a computer gaming project at Claremont High School

Adrian Clayton, a Senior at Claremont High School from Claremont Unified School District is currently enrolled in the Computer Programming and Game Design class. Adrian learned about the ROP Computer Programming and Game Design course from another student who had previously taken the course. Adrian spoke about the immediate joy he felt once creating his first game. He praises his instructor for providing insight that he can instantly apply to his projects, pushing his boundaries to create better games. When speaking about his experience as an ROP student, Adrian states, "I certainly think ROP is important for students. Experience is a huge part of obtaining a job and this class helps me become more marketable. Without these courses, I wouldn't have found my passion for game design." Adrian's dream job is to be a game designer, work for a gaming retailer, then ultimately create his own gaming studio. We wish Adrian the best in his future endeavors. Thank you to instructor Brent Gilson for sharing this story.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE STUDENTS

Transportation Distribution Logistics

Alexis Hernandez prepped for her Transportation Distribution Logistics class

Chaffey Joint High School District student, Alexis Hernandez, a Senior from Etiwanda High School, is currently enrolled in the Transportation Distribution Logistics class. The new TDL course exceeded Alexis' expectations. She thought the course would be solely bookwork and to Alexis' surprise, the course is packed with hands-on real-life experiences housed in a new state-of-the-art logistics facility. "ROP motivated me to do better, give my all, and encouraged me to try harder to succeed in the future." This course has made Alexis become more organized and strengthened her planning skills. Alexis states, "ROP is important for students because we learn many different lessons that apply to the real-world."

Transportation Distribution Logistics

Transportation Distribution Logistics student, Jordan Fellows gets ready to learn at the new Logistics Building

Upland Unified School District student Jordan Fellows Senior, from Upland High School is currently taking the Transportation Distribution Logistics class at the Baldy View ROP Career Training Center. He is looking forward to learning about warehouse systems and how they work. Jordan states, "I signed up for the TDL course because I didn't know what to do with my future. I saw this class as an opportunity and pathway for a career." Jordan shared that what he enjoys most is learning how to stack pallets. The state-of-the-art technology is formulated equivocally to current logistics systems. "I think students can prepare for a career and also learn valuable skills in life.", states Jordan.

Staff News and Notes

Helena Zarate-Simolin

Coordinator

Helena Zarate-Simolin is Baldy View ROP's new Coordinator for Educational Services. She has been in education for over 14 years working with students at the secondary level, with social-emotional instruction and interventions, career exploration and planning, as well as academics. Most recently, she has provided mentoring, coaching, and professional development for K-12 staff. Helena earned her Master's Degree in Education-Counseling from the University of Redlands. "I am really looking forward to collaborating with the BVROP team and being a part of the great work that is occurring. I believe we can change the trajectory of the lives of our students and families and that is really amazing to see," said Helena. When she is not at work, she loves to spend quality time with her husband and two daughters, ages 9 and 11, especially when it involves traveling and exploring new places. When she has an opportunity, she enjoys crafting with or for her daughters. Welcome, Helena!

Trina Le

Coordinator

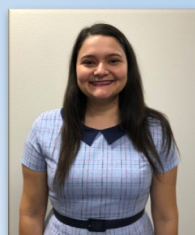

Baldy View ROP introduces Trina Le as our new Coordinator for Educational Services. She has been an educator for over 16 years including experience in managing and developing CTE programs and pathways, coordinating grants, curriculum writing, course sequencing, and dual enrollment. In her new position, Trina will be monitoring, supporting, and evaluating instructors. She is most excited about building rapport and relationships with instructors and staff as well as developing and enhancing our CTE programs and pathways. She will partake in advisory meeting coordination, Adult Education Program (AEP) accreditation, and Council on Occupational Education (COE) accreditation. Trina considers herself to be a true "foodie" and enjoys walks on the beach. During her free time, she enjoys watching movies. Welcome, Trina!

Jasmine Harris

Marketing & Public Relations Specialist

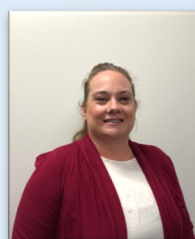

Jasmine Harris joins Baldy View ROP as the new Marketing and Public Relations Specialist. Her education is in marketing with 10 years of digital and marketing experience as well as 5 years of experience in education. After spending 6 years in London, England expanding her marketing experience, she is looking forward to blending her creativity and analytical nature to provide engaging graphics and content promoting Baldy View ROP. Jasmine's hobbies include going to the beach. On any given weekend you will find Jasmine spending time with her family, swimming, cozying up with a good book, designing, journaling, and hiking. She loves creating new memories with her loved ones, exploring new foods, markets, family/friends game night, and trips. Welcome, Jasmine!

Cristina Lopez

Special Projects & Grants Liaison

Baldy View ROP welcomes Cristina Lopez as the new Special Projects & Grants Liaison for Educational Services. Cristina received a Master's Degree in Public Administration in June 2018 from the University of La Verne. Her professional background includes working at Cal Poly Pomona in the Department of Sponsored Programs where she edited and submitted grants for faculty members to nationwide organizations. Previously, she worked as a coordinator with the Chemical & Materials Engineering department on the campus. Cristina's new position includes overseeing special projects and grant-funded projects that include preparation for consortium meetings, as well as participating in the development of policies and procedures to meet district goals and program objectives. In her new position, she is looking forward to conducting meetings with constituents to accomplish goals for grant spending that will bring an enhanced ROP program for our youth. When Cristina is not at work, she enjoys laughing and movie quoting with family and friends. She has a great passion for travel, food, and art. Welcome, Cristina!

Cariann Angel

Accounts Clerk

Baldy View ROP welcomes Cariann Angel as the new accounts clerk for Business Services. Cariann earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice. Her past experience entails working for the United States District Court in downtown Los Angeles as a Procurement Clerk. Her new position pertains to accounts payable. She is looking forward to being a team player because she believes that effective teams require people with different strengths to work together in new ways and at greater speeds to achieve top-notch results. When asked about her hobbies and interests, Cariann stated "My hobbies and interests are my children. I have 3 children. My oldest is Savannah who is 18 and goes to Chaffey College. Justin is 13 and attends Alta Loma Jr. High School and my youngest Ryan, is 11 and goes to Jasper Elementary." Welcome, Cariann!
