

TERMS OF OFFICE

The Baldy View Regional Occupational Program (ROP) shall be governed by the Baldy View Regional Occupational Program Commission consisting of one elected representative from each of the participating districts that are parties to the Joint Powers Agreement.

The governing board of each participating district shall appoint one elected member of their district school board to serve as a member of the Commission. Each of the participating districts to the ROP shall also appoint one elected member of their school district board to serve as an alternate member to serve in the absence of the member.

The term of office for Commission members and their alternates shall be two years. A member may be appointed by their participating school district board for successive terms.

The term of the Commission President shall be for two years.

The term of the Commission Vice President shall be for two years.

In the event a member district representative cannot fulfill their role as President or Vice President as part of the rotation, the district representative next in rotation will fulfill the role for that term.

The positions of President and Vice President shall be determined by the following rotation:

2 Year Term

2011 – Chaffey Joint Union High School District
2013 – Claremont Unified School District
2015 – Chino Valley Unified School District
2017 – Upland Unified School District and so forth.

A Commission member whose term has expired shall continue to discharge the duties of the office until their successor has sat on the board.

The host district school board having the appointment shall be required to fill any vacancy for their Commission member or alternate within 60 calendar days of the vacancy.
