Baldy View ROP Hosts Community Open House

Baldy View ROP hosted a Community Open House on Saturday, February 25th at its Career Training Center campus in Ontario.

The event was free to the community and featured over 60 tables featuring live demonstrations representing various Baldy View ROP courses, as well as representatives from a number of employers, colleges, and organizations offering community resources. Baldy View ROP students from the Law Enforcement and Firefighting technology courses presented their skills through physical drills and marching formations. Attendees also had the opportunity to tour various classrooms including the Registered Dental Assistant lab, Vocational Nursing Skills Lab, and Pharmacy Technician lab. Activities also included access to a STEAM mobile unit and dental services through the Loma Linda University School of Dentistry.

Baldy View ROP Director of Development/Public Relations Dora Edney said, “Baldy View ROP is seeking to strengthen the economic profile of our region by connecting educational, business, and community resources that engages, elevates, and empowers our community.

Registration is currently open for Fall 2017 Baldy View ROP courses. For more information, please call 909-947-3400 or visit www.baldyviewrop.com.
