

DES THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE A SUCCESS

Dade County Sheriff's Department Deputies SRO Amanda Lind, Sgt. Cyndi Thurman, Lt. David Hughes, Ms. Ashley Brown, Sheriff Ray Cross, and Sgt. Hailey Smith with Dade Elementary fifth graders Victor Morris and Evan Walling give Thanksgiving Food Baskets. DES provided over 40 baskets for the local community this Thanksgiving.

DCHS 9TH-GRADE STUDENTS TRAVEL TO UTC

After studying Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet in class, students from Ms. Rogers' and Ms. Luke's English 9 classes traveled to the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga to watch the UTC Theatre Center's production of the great love story. Students loved seeing the play brought to life on stage and were equally inspired by the pre-performance pizza!

DAVIS 1st GRADE AT WALKER FARM PIONEER DAYS

Recently, Davis Elementary's first-grade students attended Walker Farm Pioneer Days. It was a hands-on, living history event geared toward elementary-aged students and families. Visitors moved through different historical demonstrations and showcased a variety of skills and jobs. It was a great experience for our kids.

DMS 8th GRADE STUDENTS VISIT BATTLEFIELD

DMS 8th graders visited Chickamauga National Military Park just before Thanksgiving Break. Students toured the museum, watched a dramatized film about the Battles of Chickamauga and Chattanooga, and interacted with Ranger Will Wilson. It was a great experience for the 8th-grade students!
