DES 2nd GRADE STUDENTS THANK THE VETERANS□□

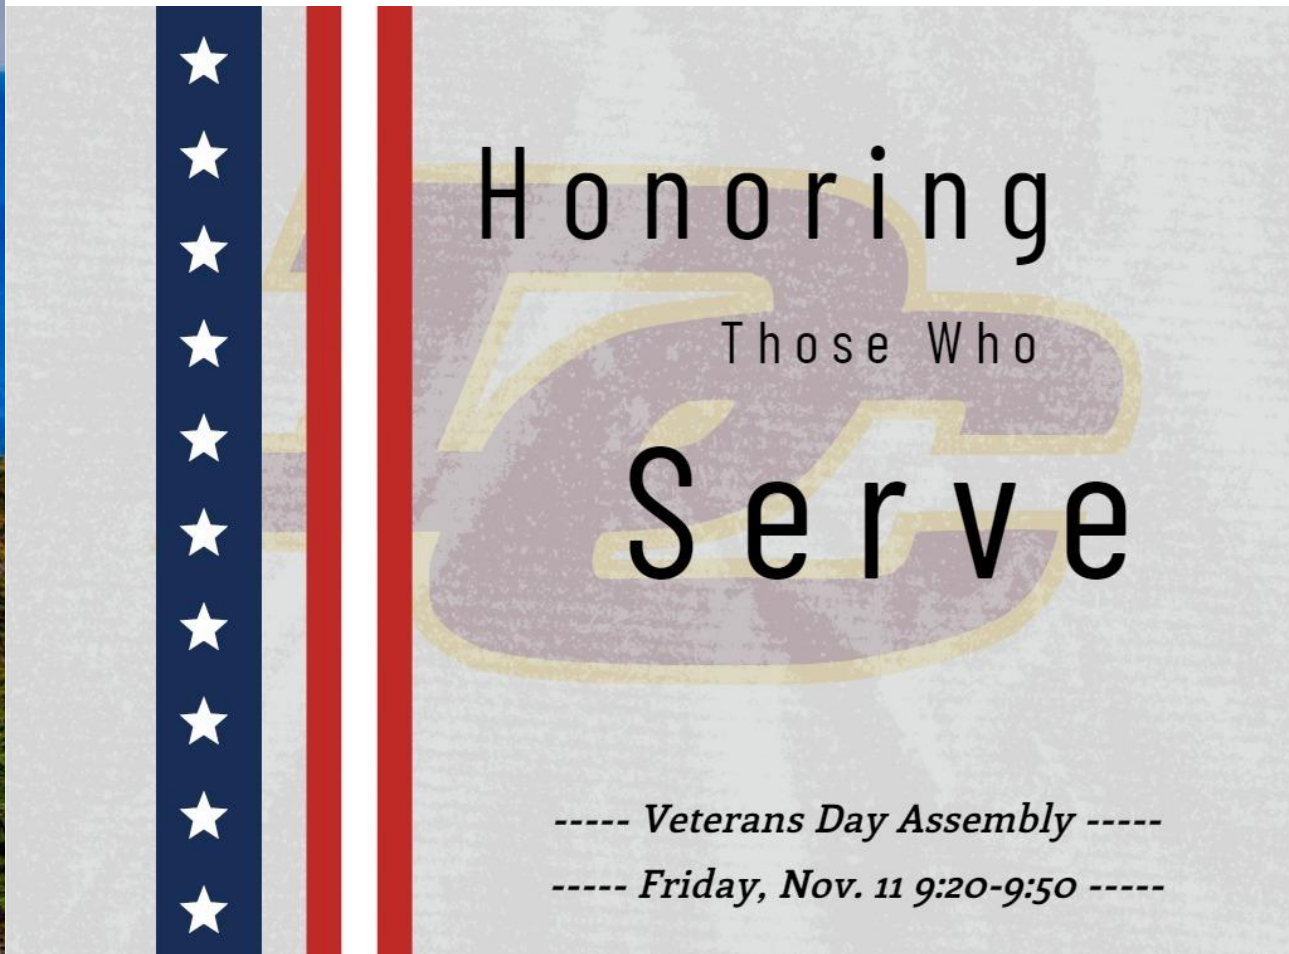

Pam Morgan's Second Grade Class wrote letters to local veterans thanking them for their service. They also enjoyed their short field trip to the U.S. Post Office where they mailed their letters to the Veterans.

DADE MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS ENJOY CLUBS

Students at Dade Middle school recently attended their clubs and participated in a variety of activities. Pictured top left, students in the art club painted windows at DMS featuring the Four Houses; pictured top right, students in the animal club participated in a simulation where they learned how to vaccinate pets; and pictured at the bottom, the 4H students made strawberry freezer jam.

DCHS TO HONOR VETERANS THIS FRIDAY□□

If you are a resident of Dade County, the faculty and staff would like to honor you and your service to our country during the Veterans Day Assembly this Friday, November 11th. The assembly will be held in the DCHS gymnasium from 9:20-9:50. Along with our guests, we will honor three of our DCHS teachers for their service; they are Mr. Chris Chance, Mr. David Howard, and Mr. Al Barton.

DCHS PAYS TRIBUTE TO CHATTOOGA HIGH SCHOOL

The faculty, staff, & students of Dade County High School dressed in Red & Black to show support, love, and heartfelt sympathy to the faculty, staff, students, and the Chattooga County community. Unfortunately, Chattooga High School lost three students in a tragic accident in late October. #ONEDADE for #ONETRIBE
