

DAVIS ELEMENTARY PreK COOKING IT UP

The Davis Elementary Pre-K class recently made bread after reading 'The Little Red Hen' by Paul Galdone. As you can see from the images, they found their bread to be very tasty!

DES KINDERGARTEN STUDENTS POSE WITH OSCAR

Ms. Amber Kent states that "it's all sunny days at DES! Just like on this guy's street." As the Kindergarten students were expanding their literacy skills, Oscar was able to assist our students and connect with the short o sound.

DADE MIDDLE HOSTS CROSS COUNTRY MEET

The Dade Middle School Cross Country Team hosted their first home meet since the fall of 2019. We would like to give a big shout-out to all of the runners as they competed in the heat and pushed themselves to finish the race.

DCHS ROCKS THE 80s FOR SPIRIT WEEK

Each Friday during the fall, the DCHS students and staff are showing their Wolverine spirit in a variety of ways. Last week, they took it back a few decades and rocked the 80s. As you can see, several students took part in the activity as well as a few staff members.
