DES Promotes Reading & Celebrates 100 Days

It may be cold, but it is always perfect weather for reading!

We're a 100 days smarter at DES!

Although the temperatures are keeping many students indoors at Dade Elementary, they are finding ways to make the best of it! They continue to encourage students to read and they celebrate the "little things" while #ReachingGreatnessTogether.

Davis Elementary To Host Parent Workshop

Davis Elementary will be hosting a parent workshop on Tuesday, February 15th, from 5:30PM to 6:30PM. The topics will include: Dealing With Defiant Behaviors and Resources and Strategies For Parents That Have Students With Disabilities. The guest speakers will include: Dr. Martha Plumlee, DES Teacher and Mrs. Karyn Leggett, DCS School Psychologist. If you are interested in attending this workshop, please RSVP to Davis Guidance Counselor, Ms. Lindsey Beavers via email (lindseybeavers@dadecs.org) or call Davis Elementary at 706-657-6300.

DES To Host Virtual STEM Night

Dade Elementary School will be hosting a virtual STEM night on Thursday, February 17th. Each grade level will have a challenge for parents and students to try at home. For more information on this exciting event, please click HERE. Dade Elementary would like to ask participants to email their photos from the STEM night activities to Ms. Brittany Koger at brittanykoger@dadecs.org. If you have additional questions, please contact Dade Elementary School at 706-657-8253.

DCHS Principal Search Survey

The Dade County School District is now accepting applications for the high school principal vacancy. As we move forward through this search process, we would like to have your feedback. Therefore, if you would take just a few moments and complete a short survey, we would certainly appreciate it. You can click HERE to complete the survey or click on the image.
