

DMS Student Prints Industry Standard Parts

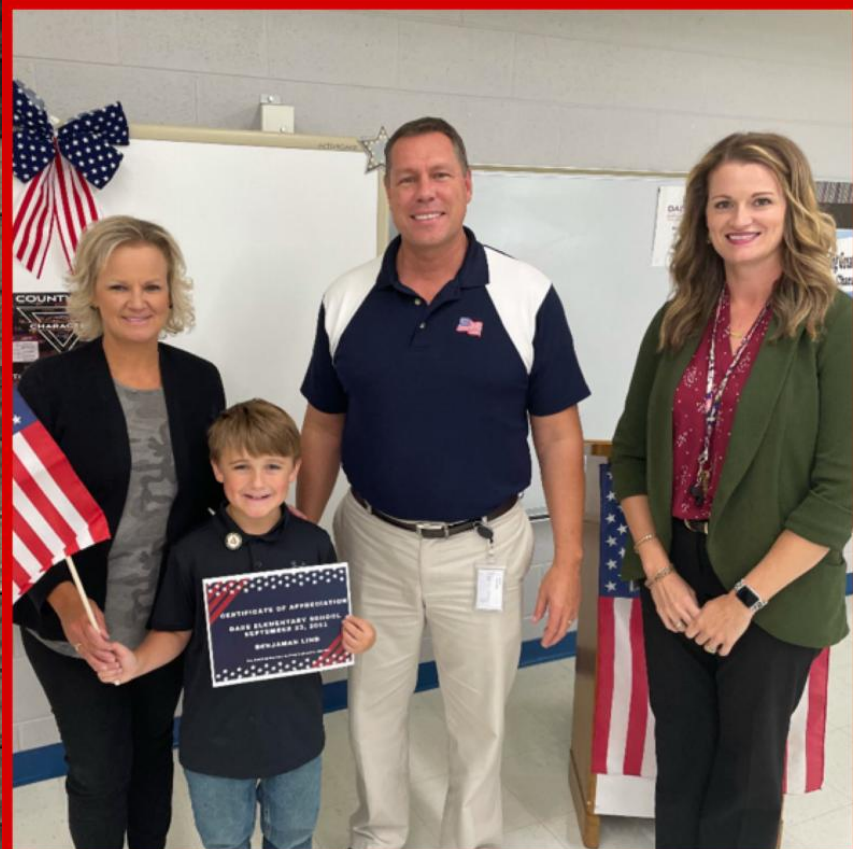

Partnering with Integer has given DCS students the opportunity to reverse engineer and 3D print industry parts allowing students to think outside the box and develop solutions to real-world problems. This opportunity will allow DCS students to grow and develop in advancement for success. Pictured above are: DMS Student, Cash Christiansen; Integer Professionals Dan Acker, Engineer; Jim Wensits, Sr. Engineer Manager; Jordan Metts, Engineer; and Shenea Hill, DCS Director of Innovation.

Ms. Blevins & Geno Read To DES Pre-K Students

The DES Pre-K students are currently working on their "pet" unit. DES Principal Ms. Tracy Blevins and Geno the bulldog joined the Pre-K classes last week as Ms. Blevins read to the students.

DES Character Spotlight

Congratulations to Benjamin Lind for being recognized for his COMMITMENT to honoring our nation's bravest heroes! Special SHOUT-OUT to Dr. Scott for talking to Mrs. Miller's class about COMMITMENT!

Davis Staff Character Spotlight

Congratulations to Mrs. Diane Gagliano on being recognized for her COMMITMENT! Here is what some Davis staff members had to say about Mrs. Gagliano: "Mrs. Gagliano does so much more than what she commits to doing!"

"This lady is always coming in our doors with a smile on her face and it's a joy to see someone love her job and students as much as she does! We as a staff and our students are blessed to have her commitment to Davis Elementary!"

Davis PTO Prepares For Fall

The Davis Elementary PTO recently prepared the front entrance of the school for the Fall season. DCS would like to give a shout out to the PTO officers for their COMMITMENT to the students!

The band's percussion and color guard received ratings of Excellent and the drum majors received a rating of Superior. The band's overall rating was Superior! Congratulations to the DCHS Marching Wolverines!

DCHS Competition Cheerleaders Take 1st Place

After cheering on the DCHS football team Friday night, the DCHS Competition Cheerleading Squad was back in action early Saturday morning. The girls traveled Heritage High School and competed in the Five Star General Cheer Classic. The cheerleaders walked away with a 1st place trophy in the Class AA division. Congratulations on a job well done!

DCHS Football Defeats Pepperell 21 - 20

The DCHS Wolverines defeated the Pepperell Dragons Friday night by score of 21 - 20. With less the three seconds left to go in the game, the Pepperell Dragons attempted a field goal for the go-ahead lead but the ball went wide right and the Wolverines walked away victorious! Congratulations on a well-played ballgame. The Wolverines will return to the gridiron this Friday Night, October 1st to take on the Pirates of South Pittsburg.
