Dr. Jeanne Villani, Psy.D., received her Masters and Doctorate Diplomas in School Psychology at St. John's University. Jeanne spent the last five years of her twenty-seven-year career with the NYC Department of Education, working as an administrator with the specialized autism programs. She worked closely with families, students, and educators promoting neurodiversity in learning. Currently, Jeanne works as an adjunct professor in the graduate mental health program at Alfred University and the undergraduate humanities and sciences program at the School of Visual Arts. She also conducts psychiatric and intelligence evaluations for the state, as a licensed NY State psychologist.
