UBC CIGNA IN-NETWORK URGENT CARE FACILITIES

Several urgent care centers in the UBC Cigna Network offer Covid 19 testing. To search for an urgent care facility, you can visit the Cigna website. To perform a search, you can enter a zip code, select search by facilities type, and then select urgent care facility. When directed to the next page, be sure to select the "Open Access Plus" network. A list of urgent care facilities within the zip code range of your search will display. You would then need to contact the facility to see if they offer COVID testing. The following is a list of just some of these urgent care facilities whose websites advertise COVID testing.
