

- JEFFREY: Thank you. Referee: R-E-F-E-R-E-E. Referee.
(Judge blows a whistle instead of ringing the bell)
- JUDGE: Sorry, I thought it was more appropriate! Jeffrey, your word was "Mediator," not "Referee!"
- JEFFREY: Oh, dude, no!
- JUDGE: I'm sorry. You are out of the Bee.
- JEFFREY: Can I talk to a mediator, please?
- JUDGE: The decision of the referee—I mean the judge—is final!
- JEFFREY: I thought I'd try. Bye.
- JUDGE: Go get your wise man costume on, Jeffrey!
(music begins to "The Busy Bee Cue #11" [55], pg. 119)
- PRONOUNCER: Number 5, Ferris Wyler, not Wheeler! Please spell the name, "DELIVERER."
- FERRIS: Deliverer: D-E-L-I-V-E-R-E-R. Deliverer.
- JUDGE: Correct!
- COMMENTATOR: And then there were two! Will we have a "Mary" winner or a Joseph winner? Let's see.
- JUDGE: Ladies and Gentlemen, we have a tie. According to the rules of the Christmas County Spelling Bee, when there are two contestants left, they are both to spell the same word by writing it down. Please take out your pads and move to separate sides of the platform.
- PRONOUNCER: Contestants, please write down the correct spelling of "NAZARENE."
(music begins to "Tension Cue" [56])
