Eastern Suffolk BOCES Programs Serving ELLs

Program Name	Services Provided	Contact Name	Telephone
Bilingual Intensive Support Services	This program provides High School ELL students access to all Special Career and Career and Technical programs with the assistance of a bilingual paraprofessional. Major components of this program are introduction and development of basic and technical language and literacy skills, conceptualized learning, career, exploratory and/or vocational training, content area knowledge, as well as pre-employment skill development.	Robert Van Brunt	(631) 419-1628
English as a Second Language Itinerant Teacher Program	ESL teachers are assigned on a daily or hourly basis to local school districts to work with their ELL population.	Debra Ciccarelli	(631) 218-4178
Evaluation Services for Students	A wide variety of specialists is available to provide evaluations. Resulting reports help the districts determine the most appropriate educational program, related services, or educational strategies for the students. Upon request, test results are reviewed with parents and presented to the CSE.	Gina Reilly	(631) 244-4052
Intensive Teacher Institute in Bilingual and Special Education (ITI-BSE)	This program provides tuition support for special education teachers and pupil personnel professionals seeking a Bilingual Education Extension to their current special education or pupil personnel professional certification. Tuition support is also provided for paraprofessionals working in a bilingual special education setting. This is a statewide program.	Christa. Stevenson Megan O'Neill	(631) 218-5171
Literacy Programs	These programs encompass three areas of study for adults: Adult Basic Education (ABE), General Education Development (GED) and English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL).	Donna Singer	(631) 286-6773
Migrant Education Outreach Program	Parents, students and staff work in partnership with local schools in order to meet special needs of migrant children. Outreach classes provided to 16-23 year olds who are illiterate, and have had little or no schooling in their native language. Program covers both Nassau and Suffolk Counties.	Julia Schnurman	(631) 548-7700
Model Schools	The Model Schools Program is a statewide initiative offering support to teachers in the area of technology integration. Model Schools personnel meet with district personnel to develop a customized system plan to enhance the execution of technology integration.	Heather Ciccone	(631) 288-9568
Program for Incarcerated Adults	This program provides instruction for incarcerated persons over the age of 21 who do not possess a high school diploma. Instruction is designed to lead to a GED and, therefore, includes reading, mathematics, social studies, and oral/written expression. English as a Second Language (ESL) is also taught to those who qualify.	Robert Dembia	(631) 286-6776
Program for Incarcerated Youth	This program provides education and counseling for incarcerated persons under 21 years of age, comparable to district programs. Instruction is designed to increase achievement in all academic areas including social studies, reading, mathematics, and oral/written expression. Classes meet five days per week for three hours per day.	Robert Dembia	(631) 286-6776
Regional Alternative High School English as a New Language Programs	This program provides students in the participating school districts an alternative non-traditional pathway to high school completion through academic education, career technical education, development of English language skills and development of transition skills designed to foster independence after graduation.	Debra Ciccarelli	(631) 218-4178
Staff and Curriculum Development	Provides professional development through research-based practices including, regional workshops, seminars, symposia, in-district workshops and mentoring, design, review, evaluate and update curricula, SED informational sessions, and many others. All programs are deeply embedded with current educational issues.	Bernadette Gentile	(631) 218-4152

Bilingual Glossaries

<https://steinhardt.nyu.edu/metrocenter/language-rbern/education/glossaries-ells-mlls-accommodations>

The bilingual glossaries are intended to be used by teachers, English Language Learners, test translators, and material and curricula developers. Students should use these documents daily as supplements to their texts, for studying or as references when taking the Regents examinations. Teachers should use the glossaries as reference in preparing lessons. They should be of special value in classrooms where the teachers do not speak the targeted languages. Please note that the translators of the Regents examinations will also use the glossaries to prepare the translations of the subject area Regents tests.

Susan Kessler, Program Administrator

skessler@wsboces.org

Phone: (631) 595-6814

<http://www.wsboces.org/instructionsupport/student-support-services/>

The Student Support Services Center provides programs and services that support school improvement by addressing those barriers to learning that focus on the physical, social and emotional development needs of students. School and student health are essential components of a comprehensive approach to increasing student achievement in the 21st century. These professional development opportunities use evidence-based strategies to increase student attendance, decrease the incidents of violence and suspensions and ultimately improve academic success.
