

Early Learning

The Early Learning program of study focuses on early childhood education, which consists of instructing and supporting preschool and early elementary school students in activities that promote social, physical and intellectual growth as well as in basic elements of science, art, music, and literature. This program of study introduces CTE learners to tasks necessary for planning, directing, and coordinating activities for young children.

Level 1	7709 Principles of Education and Training
Level 2	7713 Child Development
Level 3	7721 Child Guidance I
Level 4	7723 Child Guidance II 7499 Independent Study Mentorship 7391/L Career Preparation I

Industry-Based Certifications offered in this Program of Study include:

- Pre-Professional Certification in Early Childhood Education