LEADERSHIP AND TEACHING FOR EFFECTIVE LEARNING

The very strong principal with his highly capable senior leadership team has established a purposeful learning community that values inclusivity and wellbeing. They have the trust of students, parents, and staff. Senior leaders have a clear understanding of what needs to be done to innovate and improve the school. The governance steering group are drivers of governance policy on inclusion, wellbeing, and curriculum personalisation. The quality of teaching across the school is very strong. Teachers know their students very well and establish strong relationships with them creating an environment highly conducive to learning. Student interactions with teachers and peers are very positive and classroom environments are calm and purposeful. Students confidently communicate and collaborate effectively in groups, particularly in mathematics, science and moral, social and cultural education. Students' communication and presentation skills in both French and English are exceptionally strong.
