

Weekly Eagle News – Head of Schools

My Favorite Parents:

Sunday's tropical storm led to the cancellation of school on Monday. I was in early with our maintenance team to assess how our campus had held up during the storm. Most of the issues were minor – some branches down, parking lots a mess of debris, a few leaks, standing water in the usual places and a roll-up door that allowed water into a storage area. We did have an issue with our playground turf on the lower school that was fairly significant in that it would have been a safety concern for students, but thankfully was straightforward to fix (with the time available).

The first week of school has been great. There is a positive spirit, great and growing interactions between teachers and students and a zeal for learning. We put together this video to capture some of the excitement of the first day.

Announcing Fellowship Fridays: Please stop by Building A at the Lower School for a cup of morning coffee as we introduce Fellowship Fridays taking place the 1st & 3rd Friday of every month @ 7:45am! Inaugural gathering will be on Friday, September 1st.

Enjoy your week!
